

Walt Huntley's HOMESPUN POEMS

ORIGINAL AND INSPIRING -

Sunrise
Productions
BLP 182

Born in London, England, Walt Huntley came to Canada at the age of three. As a teenager he was under contract to ride the thoroughbred race horses owned by one of the wealthiest and largest Canadian racing stables. His days as a jockey were filled with many thrilling but also dangerous experiences.

At a revival meeting conducted by the late Dr. Paul Rader, well-known evangelist and composer, Walt first heard of the saving grace of the Lord Jesus Christ. That night he accepted the call of Christ and surrendered his life to Him. Since that time he has devoted many years of service to his wonderful Lord and Saviour as radio manager at the Peoples Church in Toronto and also as a member of the King's Radio Quartet. His songs and poems have been a blessing to many.

Walt now lives in Cooksville, Ontario with his lovely wife, Dorothy. Their three children are married and the six grandchildren are a constant source of enjoyment.

Looking back over the years Walt is keenly aware of the divine protection and guidance of his Heavenly Father. The blessings of God have been great and it is from a heart filled with gratitude that these expressions are penned in poem and song. It is the prayer of Walt that these poems shall be a blessing to all who hear them and that great honor and glory shall come to his Lord and Saviour through his humble efforts.

Tributes to a Christ-honoring Talent.

The Apostle Paul has declared that "unto everyone of us is given grace according to the measure of the gift of Christ." (Eph. 4:7)

Every believer can do something for the Lord Jesus, and do it well.

To the readers of Walt Huntley's poems it is apparent that unto him it has been given to state vital, spiritual truths in homespun, easy to be understood lines which linger long and lovingly to one's memory.

I certainly have enjoyed reading the poems of Walt Huntley. Quite often I quote the poem "God's Hall of Fame" as I give my testimony for Christ.

BORRY RICHARDSON
New York Yankees

Walt Huntley's poetry effervesces with emotion which comes from the soul of a man who is in love with his Lord. When once you know the man, you will fully appreciate his verse, for it is an expression of deep devotion to Christ, and it sparkles with a human touch that makes it charming as well as practical. He is down to earth, but he walks in heavenly places. That is why his poetry brings a deluge of mail every time we read it on the radio.

RALPH W. NECHOUR
Morning Sunshine Radio Program

It warmed and thrilled my heart in a strange and wonderful way to hear the poems of my good friend Walt Huntley used so widely in far away New Zealand and Australia.

This made me realize more than ever that God has given very few people a "Poetic Ministry" as unique and unusual as the one He has bestowed in Walt.

REDO HARPER
Evangelist-"Mr. Texas"

"Walt Huntley is perhaps one of the most outstanding homespun poets that we have in the world today". His work is quite equal to that of Edgar Gores. There are a lot of people who can write poetry of a kind but there are very few who have the gift of writing homespun poetry and Walt Huntley has that gift.

OSWALD J. SMITH
Author, Hymnwriter, Missionary pastor of The Peoples Church, Toronto

The poems of Walt Huntley my dear friend and brother in the Lord, are very inspiring and homespun. They express great truths and come from the heart of a man who walks with God.
