Building Confidence, Resolving Conflicts Muthiah Alagappa, 1989      ASEAN's Cooperative Security Enterprise H. Katsumata, 2010-01-20 Katsumata demonstrates that something interesting is taking place inside the ASEAN Regional Forum ARF He shows that an association of minor powers in Southeast Asia is promoting its cooperative security norm and influencing the policies of its external partners Thus the ARF is one of the important pathways to regional security

Theorizing Southeast Asian Relations Amitav Acharya, Richard Stubbs, 2013-10-31 The recent proliferation of theories of international relations has transformed analyses of Southeast Asia's international affairs A new generation of scholars has promoted a lively and illuminating debate which has seen the traditional realist neorealist approach which continues to hold centre stage challenged by constructivist analyses In turn constructivists have found themselves under fire from an array of competing approaches This collection engages this emerging debate It underscores the point that Southeast Asia is now an important site for applying new theories of international relations It also demonstrates that theoretical frameworks originally developed in North America and Europe have to be adapted to the specific circumstances found in places like Southeast Asia and that this process can enrich theory building The chapters in this book focus on the realist neorealist constructivist English School and critical approaches The resulting debate helps to shed light on ways of analysing Southeast Asian relations as well as on the evolution of these key theoretical frameworks This book was published as a special issue of The Pacific Review      Naval Strategy in Northeast Asia Duk-ki Kim, 2000 Over the past decade Northeast Asia has been dominated by quite significant strategic change which is ongoing and brings with it many uncertainties naval capabilities in Northwest Asia are instrumental in promoting maritime security interests helping to build a stable security environment through active participation in regional naval co operation This landmark book explores the region's maritime peace and stability and examines in depth the strategic military and apolitical issues that underpin any effort to develop maritime co operation      A Handbook of Confidence-building Measures for Regional Security, 1993      Security, Arms Control, and Conflict Reduction in East Asia and the Pacific, 1993-07-30 This is the most comprehensive bibliography to date on the vast English language literature covering the myriad aspects of peace and security issues in the East Asia Pacific region McClean contacted 150 key research institutions and publishers around the world for information about the most significant books articles dissertations and official documents on international and intra state security arms control conflict avoiding diplomacy and militarization in the area He has selectively annotated 12 645 cross referenced entries and organized them into 27 sub regional and country chapters including two particularly extensive chapters on Japan and China and two further chapters on relations between Australia New Zealand and the United States and on U S and Soviet policy      Asia in the New Millennium Lai To Lee, Amitav Acharya, 2004 Some 120 participants attended the inaugural Congress of the Asian Political and International Studies Association APISA in Singapore on 28 30 November 2003 Asians from universities and institutes in many countries accounted for about 70 per cent of the participants The First Congress had been two years in the making In November 2001 30 academics from research institutes think tanks and universities introduced the idea of launching an Asian based academic organisation dedicated to the advancement of political and international studies It was the general consensus of the meeting that Asian scholars had been marginalised from the decision making processes of the Western based associations of a similar nature Asian schools of thought had been stifled as a consequence of the American hegemony in the social sciences and that the state of Asian studies in general was underdeveloped In the light of these concerns the APISA was established Drawn from academia and think tanks from across Asia and the Pacific the political and security specialists sociologists historians and economists exchanged ideas and charted new intellectual terrain on the theme Asia in the New Millennium Development Democracy and Security The keynote speaker at the Congress was Dr Surin Pitiswan former Foreign Minister of Thailand and Member of the Commission for Human Security who focused on the need to pursue prominence in Asian scholarship Panels at the APISA Congress transcended disciplinary contours national and regional boundaries and historical confines The panels themes ranged from globalisation identity and community in Asia to electronic government and theory and modernity Offering more regional lenses were panels that discussed understanding and explaining Asia Pacific security and the welfare state in Southeast Asia China and her neighbours Among the many panels that engaged other disciplines were the discussions on state vs market the historical contributions in the panel on defining Southeast Asia as a region and sociological inclinations in the panel on culture politics and cooperation READERSHIP Policy makers researchers tertiary students and all those interested in politics and international relations
