A History Of The French New Wave Cinema Wisconsin Studies In Film:

A History of the French New Wave Cinema Richard John Neupert, 2002 The French New Wave cinema is famous for its exuberance daring and avant garde techniques This is a look at the social economic and aesthetic mechanisms that shaped French film in the 1950s as well as detailed studies of the most important New Wave movies of the late 1950s and early 1960s

A History of the French New Wave Cinema Richard Neupert, 2007-04-20 The French New Wave cinema is arguably the most fascinating of all film movements famous for its exuberance daring and avant garde techniques A History of the French New Wave Cinema offers a fresh look at the social economic and aesthetic mechanisms that shaped French film in the 1950s as well as detailed studies of the most important New Wave movies of the late 1950s and early 1960s Richard Neupert first tracks the precursors to New Wave cinema showing how they provided blueprints for those who would follow He then demonstrates that it was a core group of critics turned directors from the magazine Cahiers du Cinéma especially François Truffaut Claude Chabrol and Jean Luc Godard who really revealed that filmmaking was changing forever Later their cohorts Eric Rohmer Jacques Rivette Jacques Doniol Valcroze and Pierre Kast continued in their own unique ways to expand the range and depth of the New Wave In an exciting new chapter Neupert explores the subgroup of French film practice known as the Left Bank Group which included directors such as Alain Resnais and Agnès Varda With the addition of this new material and an updated conclusion Neupert presents a comprehensive review of the stunning variety of movies to come out of this important era in filmmaking

Jacques Rivette and French New Wave Cinema James R Russo, 2023-03-18 This first comprehensive English collection of the interviews of Jacques Rivette 1928-2016 documents his career through chronology filmography bibliography and image stills A comprehensive introduction places this work in the wider context of twentieth century social change Rivette's films like many of the works of the French New Wave seem to have avoided the aging process entirely remaining as playful fresh and quietly spectacular as the day they were made Indeed his body of work may be the most impressive of the French New Wave Celine and Julie Go Boating 1974 has been recognized as possibly the best film to emerge from the post New Wave era even as Paris Belongs to Us 1961 is one of the best pictures to emerge from the New Wave itself Rivette was hardly the most prolific director however and the length of his films has often counted against him Nonetheless his clinical self reflexive essays in film form reveal him as a cinematic purist whose commitment to the celluloid muse hardly diminished from the heady days of the early 1950s to the end of his career in 2009 Beyond inspiring the New Wave movement and continuing to reflect and reflect on its central tenets Rivette's enduring contribution to the history of film is unquestionably evident in his sensitive treatment of the histories and destinies of women especially through strong roles for actresses During the six decades of his career nonetheless he struck a subtle balance not only between female and male characters but also between political and personal obsession between myth and fiction between theater and cinema in films that in addition to having influenced such contemporary filmmakers as Claire Denis Jim Jarmusch Olivier Assayas and

David Lynch continue to redefine the art of cinema around the world
