A Hungarian Quo Vadis Political Trends And Theories In The Early 1840s:

A Hungarian Quo Vadis János Varga, 1993 19th-Century Hungarian Political Thought and Culture Ferenc Hörcher, Kálmán Tóth, 2023-06-15 This volume presents the ideas of the main actors of the political scene in the Hungarian Kingdom during the long 19th century 1790-1920 Organised around key political thinkers the book considers the most significant paradigms of thought associated with these figures and the critical political events of the day Beginning with an introductory overview of 19th century Hungary in a European context which includes the main features of Hungarian political thought 19th Century Hungarian Political Thought and Culture explores the fundamental characteristics of the country's political system and the geopolitical background to political discourse in the region at the time The contributors reflect on the stories of some of the most influential voices as well as their networks impacts and legacies Through this the book is able to offer novel insights into how Western political culture was perceived and adapted in a country long considered by many to belong to the European periphery From Peoples Into Nations John Connelly, 2022-01-25 This book is a history of East Central Europe since the late eighteenth century the region of Europe between German central Europe and Russia in the East Connelly argues the region for which it is frequently hard to define exact boundaries and which is sometimes treated country by country in a way seemingly separate from the broader trends of European history was one of shared experience despite most of the peoples being divided by linguistic geographic and political barriers Beginning in the 1780s an unwitting Habsburg monarch Joseph II decreed that his subjects would use only German as he hoped to mold a common nationality using German over the disparate subjects Instead he unleashed the energies and struggle for the emergence of new nations that pitted small peoples armed with an idea against empires The author argues that the underlying national self assertion which emerged under imperial rule in the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries shows deep connections to subsequent histories to the creation of nation states of the regions after World War I the failure of democratic rule in these states during the interwar years the submersion of the region under Nazi then Soviet rule after 1939 and to the reinvention of sovereign states and then the break up of two of them after 1989 The book interconnects major themes and country histories for first time chronicling this diverse region over many generations from the time of Joseph through democratic and socialist revolutions genocide and Stalinism through civil society movements struggling for liberal democracy into our own day when illiberal politicians come to power by exploiting very old fears The Revolutions in Europe, 1848-1849 Hartmut Pogge von Strandmann, Robert John Weston Evans, 2000 These essays arose out of lectures given in Oxford to commemorate the 150th anniversary of the 1848 revolutions in Europe Authoritative yet readable and colourful they comprise judicious summaries of the existing state of knowledge as well as new insights and unfamiliar information The book also seeks to place the revolutionary events in their wider context apart from chapters covering the main centres of disturbance in France Germany Italy and the Habsburg lands there are discussions of the situation in Britain and Russia which were affected but not convulsed by the disorders elsewhere of reactions in the United States of America of the symbolism of 1848 for the later democratic radical and socialist movements 1848 marked the first breakdown of traditional authority across much of the continent and as such is of profound significance in the development of modern European politics as a whole

A History of Modern Political Thought in East Central Europe Balázs Trencsényi, Maciej Janowski, Monika Baár, Maria Falina, Michal Kopeček, 2016 The volume offers the first ever synthetic overview of the history of modern political thought in East Central Europe

Modern Jewish Scholarship in Hungary Tamás Turán, Carsten Wilke, 2016-11-21 The Habsburg Empire was one of the first regions where the academic study of Judaism took institutional shape in the nineteenth century In Hungary scholars such as Leopold and Immanuel L w David Kaufmann Ignaz Goldziher Wilhelm Bacher and Samuel Krauss had a lasting impact on the Wissenschaft des Judentums Science of Judaism Their contributions to Biblical rabbinic and Semitic studies Jewish history ethnography and other fields were always part of a trans national Jewish scholarly network and the academic universe Yet Hungarian Jewish scholarship assumed a regional tinge as it emerged at an intersection between unquelled Ashkenazi yeshiva traditions Jewish modernization movements and Magyar politics that boosted academic Orientalism in the context of patriotic historiography For the first time this volume presents an overview of a century of Hungarian Jewish scholarly achievements examining their historical context and assessing their ongoing relevance

The Politics of National Character Balázs Trencsényi, 2012-02-22 The book is a comparative analysis of the ideological constructions of national specificity in Romania Bulgaria and Hungary Studying the growing infatuation with national essence it seeks to understand the radicalization of nationalism in East Central Europe in connection with the shift of the notions of historicity and temporality Trencs nyi provides a contextual analysis of the symbolic resources and available ideological references that were used for creating these discourses in the respective countries While focusing on the interwar period when these conceptions became central to the political debate he also reconstructs the long term historical evolution of the discourse of national characterology Through this prism the work offers a contextual reconstruction of the main debates of these elites on national identity from the mid 19th century until 1945 In the light of the three case studies the volume contributes to discussions of the problem of modernism and anti modernism in twentieth century political thought posing the question of the intellectual responsibility of intellectuals in constructing radical ideological frameworks This book offers a broad intellectual panorama discerning the common regional features as well as the considerable divergence between these three cases while also placing them into a wider European intellectual framework of the emergence of radical nationalism

The Politics of Language and Nationalism in Modern Central Europe T. Kamusella, 2008-12-16 This work focuses on the ideological intertwining between Czech Magyar Polish and Slovak and the corresponding nationalisms steeped in these languages The analysis is set against the earlier political and ideological history of these languages and the panorama of the emergence and political uses of other languages of the region

Habsburg Lemberg Markian

Prokopovych,2009 When Austria annexed Galicia during the first partition of Poland in 1772 the province s capital Lemberg was a decaying Baroque town By the outbreak of the First World War in 1914 Lemberg had become a booming city with a modern urban and at the same time distinctly Habsburg flavor In the process of the long nineteenth century both Lemberg s appearance and the use of public space changed remarkably The city center was transformed into a showcase of modernity and a site of conflicting symbolic representations while other areas were left decrepit overcrowded and neglected Habsburg Lemberg Architecture Public Space and Politics in the Galician Capital 1772 1914 reveals that behind a variety of national and positivist historical narratives of Lemberg and of its architecture there always existed a city that was labeled cosmopolitan yet provincial and a Vienna but still of the East Buildings streets parks and monuments became part and parcel of a complex set of culturally driven politics

Historians and Nationalism Monika Baár,2010-02-25 Monika Ba r examines the work of five prominent East Central European historians in the 19th century analyzing and contrasting their body of work their promotion of a national culture and the contributions they made to European historiography
