A Labour of Love Stephen Humphries, Pamela Gordon, 1993 The Women's Movements in the United States and Britain from the 1790s to the 1920s Christine Bolt, 2014-09-25 This book presents a study of the development of the feminist movement in Britain and America during the 19th century Acknowledging the similar social conditions in both countries during that period the author suggests that a real sense of distinctiveness did exist between British and American feminists American feminists were inspired by their own perception of the superiority of their social circumstances for example whereas British feminists found their cause complicated by traditional considerations of class Christine Bolt aims to show that the story of the American and British women's movement is one of national distinctiveness within an international cause This book should be of interest to students and teachers of American and British political history and women's studies A Labour of Love Stephen Humphries, Pamela Gordon, 1993 Abortion in England 1900-1967 Barbara Brookes, 2012-10-09 The book originally published in 1988 suggests that the inter war years saw a crucial mapping of boundaries in the debates over abortion Caring Responsibilities in European Law and Policy Eugenia Caracciolo di Torella, Annick Masselot, 2020-02-28 This book explores the emerging engagement of EU law with care and carers The book argues that the regulation of care by the EU is crucial because it enables the development of a broad range of policies It contributes to the sustainability of society and ultimately it enables individuals to flourish Yet to date the EU approach to regulating the caring relationship remains piecemeal and lacks the underpinning of a cohesive strategy Against this backdrop this book argues that the EU can and must take leadership in this area by setting principles and standards in accordance with the values of the treaty in particular gender equality human dignity solidarity and well being The book further makes a case for a stronger protection for carers who should not only be protected against discrimination but should also be supported valued and put in a position to make choices and lead full lives In order to achieve this a proactive approach to rebalancing the relationship between paid and unpaid work is necessary Ultimately the book puts forward a series of legal and policy recommendations for a holistic approach to care in the EU Subject Guide to Books in Print , 1991 Forthcoming Books Rose Army, 1988-09 General Catalogue of Printed Books to 1955 British Museum.
