A History Of Tower Hamlets:

A History of Tower Hamlets Colm Kerrigan,1982 Guide to London Local History Resources, London Borough of Tower Hamlets Tower Hamlets. Libraries Department,1975 The Hamlets and the Tower David Rich,2000-01-01 Old East Enders Jane Cox,2014-02 The publication of this book is a landmark in London history Not since 1951 has there been a serious attempt to chronicle the history of East London Old East Enders tells East London s story from Roman Shadwell to the present day focusing on the untold story of the medieval and early modern Tower Hamlets Jane Cox is an experienced author and lecturer and her immensely readable and entertaining new book takes in recent archaeological research and a whole range of new record research A wide range of fascinating and in some cases previously unpublished illustrations further enliven the text which illuminates the history of this part of London as never before Every Stone Tells a Story Rosemary Taylor,1996-01-01 The New East End Michael Young,Kate Gavron,Geoff Dench,2011-09-30 This is non fiction Brick Lane what life is really like around Brick Lane and the East End One of the most influential non fiction books of the 1950s was Family and Kinship in East London which examined in great depth the life of people living in the dockland areas that had been so comprehensively destroyed in the blitz What has happened since In the 50 years since the whole area has gone into terrible decline has been comprehensively redeveloped sometimes more than once and most important of all has seen the traditional families largely leave to be replaced by a huge influx of Bangladeshi families many of whom are now into the second generation What are their lives like How is the community coping with the radical change What are relations like between the old white population and the new Asian population Does government policy affect racism Here the authors show startlingly that housing policies have made race relations much worse and must be changed This will be very controversial The book is a comprehensive examination of life in one of the most intriguing parts of England but it stands for all Britain and indeed everywhere in the world with large new immigrant populations Age, Narrative and Migration Katy Gardner,2020-12-07 Whilst the vast majority of recent research on identity and ethnicity amongst South Asians in Britain has focused upon younger people this book deals with Bengali elders the first generation of migrants from Sylhet in Bangladesh The book describes how many of these elders face the processes of ageing sickness and finally death in a country where they did not expect to stay and where they do not necessarily feel they belong The ways in which they talk about and deal with this and in particular their ambivalence towards Britain and Bangladesh lies at the heart of the book Centrally the book is based around the men and womens life stories In her analysis of these Gardner shows how narratives play an important role in the formation of both collective and individual identity and are key domains for the articulation of gender and age Underlying the stories that people tell and sometimes hidden within their gaps and silences are often other issues and concerns Using particular idioms and narrative devices the elders talk about the contradictions and disjunctions of transmigration their relationship with and sometimes resistance to the British State and what they often present as the breakdown of traditional ways In addition to this the book shows that histories stories and identity are not just narrated through words but also through the body an area rarely theorized in studies of migration Directory of Rare Book and Special Collections in the UK and Republic of Ireland Karen Attar,2016-05-31 This directory is a handy on volume discovery tool that will allow readers to locate rare book and special collections in the British Isles Fully updated since the second edition was published in 1997 this comprehensive and up to date guide encompasses collections held in libraries archives museums and private hands The Directory Provides a national overview of rare book and special collections for those interested in seeing quickly and easily what a library holds Directs researchers to the libraries most relevant for their research Assists libraries considering acquiring new special collections to assess the value of such collections beyond the institution showing how they fit into a unique and distinctive model Each entry in the Directory provides background information on the library and its purpose full contact details the quantity of early printed books information about particular subject and language strengths information about unique works and important acquisitions descriptions of named special collections and deposited collections Readership Researchers academic liaison librarians and library managers

Anti-Islamic Protest in the UK William Allchorn,2018-12-07 Demonstrations by far right groups such as the English Defence League Britain First and PEGIDA have caused considerable social and civic unrest in UK cities for nearly a decade But how should policymakers respond to far right and anti Muslim activism Drawing on extensive primary research with stakeholders local authorities and policymakers this book investigates the political socio economic and historic trends that fuel this form of political extremism across the UK It also maps the different types of policy responses available to local politicians police forces and behind the scenes policy officials involved in the day to day management of anti Islamic street protest The author demonstrates that it is only through developing successful countermeasures in the realm of politics security and community based politics that politicians police and state actors will truly get to grips with this new far right activism Religion and the Global City David Garbin,Anna Strhan,2017-06-29 This is the first book to explore how religious movements and actors shape and are shaped by aspects of global city dynamics Theoretically grounded and empirically informed Religion and the Global City advances discussions in the field of urban religion and establishes future research directions David Garbin and Anna Strhan bring together a wealth of ethnographically rich and vivid case studies in a diversity of urban settings in both Global North and Global South contexts These case studies are drawn from both classical global cities such as London and Paris and also from large cosmopolitan metropolises such as Bangalore Rio de Janeiro Lagos Singapore and Hong Kong which all constitute in their own terms powerful sites within the informational cultural and moral networked economies of contemporary globalization The chapters explore some of the most pressing issues of our times globalization and the role of global neo liberal regimes urban change and in particular the dramatic urbanization of Global South countries and religious politics and religious revivalism associated for instance with transnational Islam or global
