A Kind Of Secret Weapon:

Secret Weapons Zilpha Keatley Snyder, 2014-03-25 DIVDIV The Castle Court Kids are back and this time they're teaming up to fight the bad guys. Kate Nicely and her BFF Aurora Pappas haven't told anyone about their top secret science project that's going to win first place at the Annual Interschool Science Fair. Carlos Garcia, Bucky Brockhurst, and Eddy Wong are working on one too if they could just agree on an idea that isn't lame. But everyone could lose to Aurora's kid brother Carson and Eddy's younger brother Web, who everyone at school knows is a genius. Does Web's secret project have something to do with the two sinister-looking men in a black van who've been lurking around Castle Court? The rumors spread like wildfire. Web is developing some kind of secret weapon, and terrorists are trying to steal it. That's when the Castle Court Kids decide to form the top secret AT Club that's Anti Terrorist, of course. With the kids and one enormous Saint Bernard outnumbering the bad guys, all they have to do is wait for the perfect time to strike. DIVDIV This ebook features an extended biography of Zilpha Keatley Snyder. div div

Secret Weapons Brian J Ford, 2013-09-20 Deep in the bunkers of Nazi Germany, many of the world's top scientists worked to create a new generation of war-winning super weapons. A few of these, such as jet aircraft and the V2 rocket, became realities at the end of the war; others never made it off the drawing board. Written by noted research scientist Brian Ford, this exciting book charts the history of secret weapons development by all the major powers during the war, from British radar to Japanese ray guns, and explains the impact that these developments eventually had on the outcome of World War II. Ford also takes a look at the weapons that never made it to development stage, as well as the more radical plans, such as the idea of turning Hitler into a woman with hormone treatment.

Wunderwaffen - The secret weapons of World War II Mantelli - Brown - Kittel - Graf, 2017-02-28 Vergeltungswaffen, a retaliatory weapon, was a term coined during the Second World War to represent some Wunderwaffe, miraculous weapons that Germany was developing. The miracle weapons, according to the propaganda, would have given a clear technological superiority to the German army and would have radically changed the course of the conflict, which has now clearly turned in favor of the Allies. The most famous Wunderwaffe, as well as some of the few to have been completed and widely used, were the Vergeltungswaffe, vengeance weapons. Most still, Wunderwaffe remained at the project level, as the German military nuclear program or prototypes, such as the Panzer VIII Maus. Among the most famous are cited the V1 flying bomb, the fighter interceptor Bachem Ba 349 Natter, the rocket V2, Wasserfall, anti-aircraft missile, the V3 cannon, and the cannon 21 cm K 12 E. While the V1 can be considered a first draft of cruise missile, as it was flying on a cruise route to the target before you fall on the objective, the V2 rocket was the first real man-made and used in an armed conflict. Initially, these weapons had their own names, but for the purposes of propaganda, Joseph Goebbels coined the name Vergeltungswaffen, retaliatory weapons, since they were the first to bomb British popular districts of German cities, slaughtering innocent civilians. The Secret Weapon Michael A.
