He likes tea.
She likes meat,
but we like seeds.
When we hear the bean fall,
from the tree,
we see to the east
as we cheer...
"we need to keep
these seeds,
to free the tree,
that each day, we eat."

A Long Sound A Of Poems:

A Long Sound Joan Larkin,1986      Exploring the Language of Poems, Plays and Prose Mick Short,2018-10-08
Exploring the Language of Poems Plays and Prose examines how readers interact with literary works how they understand and are moved by them Mick Short considers how meanings and effects are generated in the three major literary genres carrying out stylistic analysis of poetry drama and prose fiction in turn He analyses a wide range of extracts from English literature adopting an accessible approach to the analysis of literary texts which can be applied easily to other texts in English and in other languages      To Make a Poem Alberta Turner,1992-04 A poem comes from the same human need as a prayer a curse a lullaby and a keen How can emotion use language to satisfy its most urgent need and how can it share and prolong that satisfaction by putting it into poems that will satisfy the same need in others The answer can be learned and the skill taught Unlike many other textbooks this one has no teaching manual and Alberta Turner does not expect those who use it to agree with her interpretations Each principled is illustrated with detailed analysis of several poems but it is up to the teachers and students to decide whether it has succeeded or failed Poetic tastes can t be legislated they have to creep by underground runners Although a poem never illustrates only one poetic principle at a time this book has focused on each separately Since the book is intended to used by beginning poets the principles are sequenced from simpler to more complex As courses in writing poetry range from two week enrichment programs to full semester college workshops the book is arranged so that the course can be shortened or lengthened This book will work best for flexible imaginative teachers of flexible imaginative students A Collegiate Press book      A Long Essay on the Long Poem Rachel Blau DuPlessis,2023-03-21
For decades Rachel Blau DuPlessis has shown readers how genres forms and the literal acts of writing and reception can be understood as sites of struggle In her own words writing is a praxis in which the author disappears into a process into a community into discontinuities and into a desire for discovery It is cause for celebration then that we have another work of warm incisive expository writing from DuPlessis in A Long Essay on the Long Poem      The Columbiad. A Poem. By Joel Barlow Joel Barlow,1807      The Secret Life of Poems Tom Paulin,2011-04-07 The Secret Life of Poems is a primer which offers a poem or on occasion an excerpt succeeding with commentary in which rhythm form metre and sources are the order of the day not ethical commentary or descriptive paraphrase This brief engagement with forty seven poems is intended for students and readers of poetry and seeks to explain how poetry works by bringing into view the hidden order of specific poems      The Poem Itself Stanley Burnshaw,2015-09-24 Available again for a new generation this classic work contains over 150 of the greatest modern French Spanish German Italian Portuguese and Russian poems presented in the original languages and brilliantly illuminated by English commentaries      The Columbiad; A Poem Joel Barlow,2025-08-16

Notational Experiments in North American Long Poems, 1961-2011 A. J. Carruthers, 2017-01-28 This book is a critical experiment that tracks the literary and poetic uses of musical notation and notational methods in North American long poems from the middle of last century to the contemporary moment Poets have readily referred to their poems as scores Yet in this study Carruthers argues that the integration of musical scores in expansive works of this period does more work than previously thought offering both resolution and escape from the demands placed on long poem form The five case studies on Langston Hughes Armand Schwerner BpNichol Joan Retallack and Anne Waldman offer approaches to reading literary scores in what might be described as a critical stave or a critical fugue of instances In differing ways musical notation and notational methods impact the form time and sometimes the ethical and political stances of these respective long poems
