Babes in Captivity Pamela Redmond, 2010-05-11 They've satisfied their biological clocks They met six years ago in a mom's group Deirdre Juliette Anne and Lisa are each living The Dream in the suburbs outside of New York City beautiful wedding big house picture perfect family What more could a woman want Plenty though none of them has ever admitted it Out loud anyway It all starts with Deirdre When she learns that her ex lover musician Nick Ruby has moved back East she confides in her girlfriends that she regrets her lost singing career and her lost love affair with Nick And since there doesn't seem to be a what's next in her life

she's more than a little curious about what if So what's that ticking sound Deirdre's confession and her plan to revive her dreams and make them reality has a startling ripple effect It turns out none of the four is as happy as she seems Anne fears her marriage is in jeopardy Juliette desperately wants to have another baby but can't And Lisa's facing decisions that her life literally depends on The doors swing wide when these babes start breaking out but at what price There's no satisfaction guarantee for any one of them but taking chances together sure beats going it alone What No Baby? Leslie Cannold,2005-01-01

What No Baby takes us on a journey into the lives of contemporary women who plan to have it all marriage motherhood and work yet have been derailed by reluctant men insatiably demanding jobs and ever climbing expectations of what it takes to be a good mother The Australian Bureau of Statistics predicts that 25% of Australian women who are currently in their reproductive years will never have children Yet respected researcher and ethicist Leslie Cannold argues that women want to mother as much as they ever did What has changed is their willingness to sacrifice everything they've built everything they are to do so Drawing on demographic data social research and insights gained from interviews with women in their 20s 30s and 40s Cannold shows that the easier society makes it for women to combine parenthood and paid work the closer women get to having the number of children they want At the end of the 21st century it is women's freedom to mother that is most at risk Guaranteed to reshape the current debate around declining fertility What No Baby is a must read for everyone concerned about Australia's fertility decline and for women who want to better understand and to solve the social problems keeping them from fulfilling lives in which children play a part Why I Turned Right Mary Eberstadt,2008-09-30

In making her new home in Poland in 1989 Applebaum had to cook with ingredients that were local fresh and available She learned how to make food that was if not exactly traditional in the Polish spirit The national rebirth of Poland in the last two decades has meant the rebirth of its cuisine and the authors have modernized many of its dishes without losing any of the centuries old flavors Collects ninety Polish recipes including roasted winter vegetables stewed beef rolls with kasha pork loin stuffed with prunes and fruit pierogi Feminism, Domesticity and Popular Culture Stacy Gillis,Joanne Hollows,2008-09-07

The relationship between feminism and domesticity has recently come in for renewed interest in popular culture This collection makes an intervention into the debates surrounding feminism's contentious relationship with domesticity and domestic femininities in popular culture It offers an understanding of the place of domesticity in contemporary popular culture whilst considering how these domesticities might be understood from a feminist perspective All the essays contribute to a more complex understanding of the relationships between feminism femininity and domesticity developing new ways of theorizing these relationships that have marked much of feminist history

Essay topics include Marguerite Patten reality television shows like How Clean is Your House the figure of the maid in contemporary American cinema aging or widowed domestic femininities and the relationship between domesticity and motherhood
