The female poets of America Rufus Wilmot Griswold, 1853 The Female Poets of America Rufus Wilmot Griswold, 1860 The Effects of the 1986 Federal Budget on Agriculture and Rural America United States. Congress. House. Committee on the Budget, 1985 Yearbook of the American Iron and Steel Institute American Iron and Steel Institute, 1925 Conversations Across Our America Louis G. Mendoza, 2012-06-01 In the summer of 2007 Louis G Mendoza set off on a bicycle trip across the United States with the intention of conducting a series of interviews along the way

Wanting to move beyond the media's limited portrayal of immigration as a conflict between newcomers and citizens he began speaking with people from all walks of life about their views on Latino immigration. From the tremendous number of oral histories Mendoza amassed the resulting collection offers conversations with forty-three different people who speak of how they came to be here and why they made the journey. They touch upon how Latino immigration is changing in this country and how this country is being changed by Latinoization. Interviewees reflect upon the concerns and fears they've encountered about the transformation of the national culture and they relate their own experiences of living and working as others in the United States. Mendoza's collection is unique in its vastness. His subjects are from big cities and small towns. They are male and female, young and old, affluent and impoverished. Many are political, striving to change the situation of Latinos in this country, but others are everyday people reflecting upon their lives in this country and on the lives they left behind. Mendoza's inclusion of this broad swath of voices begins to reflect the diverse nature of Latino immigration in the United States today.
