Excerpt from A History of Hungarian Literature Some years ago when travelling in Hungary I paid a visit to my friend Dr Szily then Secretary of the Royal Hungarian Academy in Budapest and chanced to take up a volume of Mr Gosse's Literatures of the World series published by Mr Heinemann which was lying on his table Ah I said we ought to have a book like that in England about Hungarian literature Very few of us know anything of your literature of the fine poetry it contains of the many features which distinguish it from other European literatures Well replied Dr Szily if you can get the book published in Mr Gosse's well known series the Hungarian Academy shall commission the ablest exponent of Hungarian literature in Hungary to write it and present the manuscript to you as a gift Your offer is very handsome I said and as soon as I get back to England I'll ask Mr Heinemann if he will accept it That is the story of the origin of this history of Hungarian literature The publisher and the editor alike expressed their willingness to accept the generous offer of the Hungarian Academy About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
