Joanna Rickert-Hall

A History Of Kitchener Ontario:

A History of Kitchener, Ontario W.V. (Ben) Uttley, 1975-10 William V Uttley's outline of Kitchener's growth from the 1840s into 20th century is shot through with a reassuring consistency and integration of purpose. The complex of life as we still know it: social freedom and social restraint, economy and ecology, has its genesis here in the account compiled by William Uttley. His work comes as close to a personal anecdotal history of the city as we can hope to retrieve: a spotted chronicle of a community that can never exist again and one in which almost every reader will find a point where past confronts present as nostalgia tugs against progress.

Waterloo You Never Knew Joanna Rickert-Hall, 2019-06-22 Social historian Joanna Rickert Hall dives into the history lived out in the margins of mainstream stories: the ex-slaves, the cholera victims, the grave-digging doctor, the once-loving politician, the rumrunner and the sorcery-practising healer. This is Waterloo You Never Knew revealed.

A History of Socially Responsible Business, c.1600-1950 William A Pettigrew, David Chan Smith, 2017-10-26 This book examines the changing reciprocal relationships between corporations and their various social obligations over the very long term from the seventeenth to the twentieth century. Chapters from emerging and established business historians assess the full range of social obligations that corporations held historically. By adopting an innovative methodological approach that is long term and comparative, this book offers a challenge to the literature on corporate history and will be of interest to researchers and academics in the field of finance and business history.

Guide to Historical Resources in the Regional Municipality of Waterloo Elizabeth Macnaughton, Pat Wagner, 2006-01-01 Guide to Historical Resources in the Regional Municipality of Waterloo identifies the archival collections of over one hundred and seventy-five museums, libraries, archives, government offices, social agencies, clubs and business in the Waterloo region and beyond. It provides a comprehensive approach to surveying the community and should suggest to the creative researcher further avenues for investigation. The guide will facilitate access to many areas of historical study and will be of interest to teachers, students and researchers of local history as well as members of government and heritage organizations in the Waterloo region. The survey of historical resources was a project of Doon Heritage Crossroads curatorial and research staff and was made possible by the work of dedicated volunteers and by the support of the Regional Municipality of Waterloo, the Ministry of Culture and Communications and the Good Foundation.

Governing Ourselves? Mary Louise McAllister, 2011-11-01 Popular rhetoric suggests that the twenty-first century has ushered in an era of homogeneity. Urbanization, globalization, amalgamation, media conglomeration and technological convergence have become familiar terms. Given the pressures of integration and assimilation, how are people within communities able to make decisions about their own environment, whether individually or collectively? To what extent can they govern themselves? Governing Ourselves explores issues of influence and power within local institutions and decision making processes using numerous illustrations from municipalities across Canada It shows how communities large and small from Toronto to Iqaluit have distinctive political cultures and therefore respond differently to changing global and domestic environments Case studies of Prince George Sherbrooke Saint John and Kitchener Waterloo are used to illuminate historical and contemporary challenges to local governance This stimulating book covers traditional topics such as government structures and institutions and intergovernmental relations It also reaches more broadly into areas of inquiry relevant to geography urban planning environmental studies public administration sociology and Canadian studies Shaping the Canadian City John C. Weaver,1977 Scholarship and Christian Faith Douglas Gordon Jacobsen,Rhonda Hustedt Jacobsen,2004 Argues that the idea of Christian scholarship has been under discussed This book which is organised as a conversation offers a definition and analysis of Christian scholarship that opens the way for dialogue between evangelicals and Catholics and Protestants from a variety of church traditions
