A History Of Spain Portugal

Stanley G. Payne

A History Of Spain Portugal:

A History of Spain & Portugal William Christopher Atkinson, 1960 Attempts to show as a whole the Peninsula made up of Spain and Portugal with the slow unfolding of a pattern of society and an attitude to life still subtly distinct from those north of the Pyrenees The successive occupations of Roman Visigoth and Muslim span between them more than a thousand years The Peninsula's great contribution to the modern age was the opening up of the New World in the west by Spain and of new routes to the east by Portugal Over the last century and a half the history of both peoples provides a case study in the essential relativity of forms of government
