THE UNIQUE FRANK MUIR

FROM RADIO 4'S 'A KENTISH LAD REMEMBERED'

A Kentish Lad

Henry Strafford

A Kentish Lad:

A Kentish Lad Frank Muir, 2012-02-29 For more than twenty five years Frank Muir in partnership with Denis Norden produced some of the most sparkling and original comedy ever written for radio and television On programmes such as My Word and My Music his distinctive voice became familiar to millions as he displayed an astonishingly well stocked mind and a genius for ad libbing and outrageous puns Later working at the BBC and then at London Weekend Television he produced some of the best television comedy of the 1960s and 70s He has written highly successful books for children and two bestselling anthologies of humour Frank Muir recalls in glorious detail a happy 1920s childhood in the seaside town of Ramsgate where he was born in his grandmother's pub in Broadstairs and in London where he attended an inexpensive but excellent school of a kind no longer to be found He remembers his very first joke at the age of six when he knew that his destiny was to make people laugh He also knew from an early age that he wanted to write but it took a childhood illness for him to discover that humour and writing could be combined The death of his father forced him to leave school at the age of fourteen and work in a factory making carbon paper Then at the outbreak of the Second World War he joined the RAF as an air photographer and his memories of the war years as might be imagined are engagingly different from the usual kind It was during those years with their rich fund of comic material that he began his career as scriptwriter and performer At his demob in 1945 he moved naturally to London and the Windmill Theatre that remarkable breeding ground of talent where new comedians like Jimmy Edwards and Alfred Marks vied with nude girls for the attention of the audience In story after story he recalls the lost world of London in the 1940s and early 50s when the laughter and creative ideas seemed to explode out of post war shabbiness and austerity Then came the BBC the legendary partnership with Denis Norden and half a century of fulfilling the boyhood ambition of that Kentish lad All I ever wanted to do was to write and amuse people A Kentish Lad Frank Muir, 1997 A Kentish Lad Simon Walsh, 2016-06-01 A collection of poems about a youth in England It's Mine! Janine Amos, Annabel Spenceley, 2007 Good friends make life pleasant for all of us The stories in these books show you how to be friendly to other people and show that you care about them Magic Casements Arthur Shearly Cripps, 1905 The Grail Guitar Chris Adams, 2016-02-18 In The Grail Guitar The Search for Jimi Hendrix's Purple Haze Telecaster Chris Adams takes readers on a fascinating mystery tour to determine whether a Fender Telecaster bought secondhand in a London music store in 1973 was the one used by Jimi Hendrix to record Purple Haze in January 1967 The only clues are its left handed tuners and the salesman's chance remark that the guitar was brought into the shop by a Hendrix roadie But these are enough to set the author off on this intriguing journey into Hendrix history With firsthand details from model Linda Keith who discovered Hendrix in New York Adams recounts how the rising star left for London with a white Stratocaster belonging to Keith Richards The man who made Hendrix's pedals explains how this Strat failed to make the Purple Haze recording session and how it was replaced by a borrowed Telecaster As Adams tracks down the surviving musicians they shed light on the fate of that Telecaster and gradually the two guitars begin to merge into one Throughout Adams weaves his own story as a rock musician and tells how against the odds he managed to hold on to this remarkable instrument Here is a riveting story of one man seeking the truth about a cultural artifact that changed rock history a story for rock fans and guitar aficionados treasure hunters and antique dealers as well as anyone who likes a detective story Coates's Herd Book Henry Strafford,1882
