

The background of the cover is a textured, yellowish-brown map of Anatolia. A red line and a blue line are drawn across the map, starting from the top left and winding their way across the landmass. The red line is thicker and more prominent, while the blue line is thinner and follows a similar but slightly different path. The lines appear to be made of a thick, slightly irregular material, possibly string or ribbon, giving them a three-dimensional quality.
