All Tangled Up With The Living Poems:

All Tangled Up with the Living Louis Jenkins, 1991 All Tangled Up Charles Townsend, 1903 Living Underneath Tables and Other Modern Fables Gunnar Jensen, 2012-08-23 I always wanted to write a book where I call the general populace a bunch of limp dicks and desiccated pussies however my editor refused to publish anything so honest Luckily I am the master of work arounds So in the guise of modeling hard dickitude and wet pussiness I managed to trick my editor into publishing this memoir by concealing my recriminations inside stories Follow me as I take Kerouac's On the Road beneath a table Oddly enough there were nearly as many drug dealers sexpots and weirdoes in an empty room at a reception hall as there were if you had hitchhiked across America in the late 1940s While hiding from both management and low lifes alike I secreted myself behind the white shroud of a skirted table Beneath this table I found friendship love and a workable philosophy on how to live life Lying prone beneath a rectangular skirted table I learned ironically enough how to think outside the box Also I've never actually had an editor Poetry 180 Billy Collins, 2003-03-25 A dazzling new anthology of 180 contemporary poems selected and introduced by America's Poet Laureate Billy Collins Inspired by Billy Collins's poem a day program with the Library of Congress Poetry 180 is the perfect anthology for readers who appreciate engaging thoughtful poems that are an immediate pleasure A 180 degree turn implies a turning back in this case to poetry A collection of 180 poems by the most exciting poets at work today Poetry 180 represents the richness and diversity of the form and is designed to beckon readers with a selection of poems that are impossible not to love at first glance Open the anthology to any page and discover a new poem to cherish or savor all the poems one at a time to feel the full measure of contemporary poetry's vibrance and abundance With poems by Catherine Bowman Lucille Clifton Billy Collins Dana Gioia Edward Hirsch Galway Kinnell Kenneth Koch Philip Levine Thomas Lux William Matthews Frances Mayes Paul Muldoon Naomi Shihab Nye Sharon Olds Katha Pollitt Mary Jo Salter Charles Simic David Wojahn Paul Zimmer and many more Men of Our Time Fred Moramarco, Al Zolynas, 1992-10-01 In this groundbreaking volume Fred Moramarco and Al Zolynas bring together a comprehensive and widely representative selection of poetry reflecting both the diversity and commodity of male experience in the United States today Since the beginning of the contemporary phase of the women's movement in the 1960s various anthologies devoted to the poetry of women have articulated and defined a distinctive sensibility attuned to the particularities of a woman's life in our time Although much has been written recently about the male role in our society as well the discussion generally has assumed a sociopsychological or mythic perspective Poetry Moramarco and Zolynas believe can reveal most about the nature of male life today especially the enormous changes men have experienced in recent years As the editors state in their introduction A quiet revolution has been taking place in men's poetry over the past few decades as men have been chronicling the history of their hearts and have been examining those relationships central to their being in the world their connections to their fathers and mothers their own sense of fatherhood and of being sons and brothers their marriages divorces and other aspects of their love lives as well as the ways they conceive of maleness and femaleness The poems collected in Men of Our Time 257 from more than 170 poets include a wide mix of ethnic and racial perspectives that reflect the multicultural tenor of American life They reveal men s most intimate feelings about the loss of childhood sexual anxieties and fantasies aging self sufficiency and dependency and the perennial quest for a masculine identity Above all the poems are unapologetically grounded in a distinctly male experience or imagination Men of Our Time reclaims a poetry that is connected to and expressive of men s lives in the closing decade of the twentieth century

The Poetry Circuit Peter B. Howarth, 2024-09-17 Live performance has changed poetry more than anything else in the last hundred years it has given poets new audiences and a new economy and it has generated new styles from Imagism to confessional to contemporary Spoken Word But the creative impact that public reading had right through the twentieth century has not been well understood Mixing close listening to archive performances with intimate histories of modernist venues and promoters The Poetry Circuit tells the story of how poets met their audience again and how the feedback loops between their voices the venues and the occasions turned poems into running dramas between poet and listener A nervous T S Eliot reveals himself to be anything but impersonal while Marianne Moore s accident prone readings become subtle ways of keeping her poems in constant re draft Robert Frost used his poems to spar with his fans and rivals while Langston Hughes wrote Ask Your Mama to expose the prejudice circulating in the room as he spoke it The Poetry Circuit also shows how the post war reading boom made new kinds of poetry involving their audience and setting in the performance such as John Ashbery s anti charismatic Poets Theatre Amiri Baraka s documentary soundtracks of the streets or the confessional readings of Allen Ginsberg which shame the listeners more than the poet Covering the first seventy years of the poetry reading The Poetry Circuit demonstrates that there never were page and stage poets the reading simply changed what every modern poet could do

The Library of Wit and Humor, Prose and Poetry Ainsworth Rand Spofford, 1893 The Island Within Us Robert Root, Jill Burkland, 2000 The Prose Poem , 1995 San Diego Poetry Annual -- 2009-10 William Harry Harding, 2010-03 The San Diego Poetry Annual is now part of the permanent collection of every college and university library in the San Diego region as well as the San Diego County Library system the San Diego City Library and the libraries of individual cities including Carlsbad Oceanside and Escondido This 4th edition is the biggest and most diversified yet featuring 146 poets and 222 of the best poems from every corner of San Diego Copies of each edition of the San Diego Poetry Annual are donated in the name of contributing poets to public and college libraries in San Diego County and to select libraries nationally
