

A Handbook for All Students

The All Write handbook will meet all of your writing, language, and learning needs—no matter if English is your first or your second language. Once you have a basic understanding of English, no resource will help you more than this handbook. It contains chapter after chapter of useful information divided into five main sections.

Five Main Sections

- 1 The Process of Writing will help you develop your basic writing skills—including using the writing process and writing effective paragraphs.
- 2 The Forms of Writing provides guidelines and models for the types of writing you will be assigned—including book reviews, summaries, classroom reports, and stories.
- 3 The Tools of Learning contains guidelines and strategies that will help you improve your reading and study skills.
- 4 The Proofreader's Guide covers the rules for capitalization, spelling, punctuation, and grammar. This section is your complete guide to editing and proofreading skills.
- 5 The Student Almanac includes helpful tables, glossaries, maps, and charts to use in all of your classes—from science to social studies.

All Write will help you become a better writer and student now and for years to come—in school and on the job!
