Psychoanalysis and Religion in the 21st Century David M. Black, 2012-07-26 What can be gained from a dialogue between psychoanalysis and religion? Freud described religion as the universal obsessional neurosis and uncompromisingly rejected it in favour of science. Ever since there has been the assumption that psychoanalysts are hostile to religion. Yet from the beginning individual analysts have questioned Freud's blanket rejection of religion. In this book David Black brings together contributors from a wide range of schools and movements to discuss the issues. They bring a fresh perspective to the subject of religion and psychoanalysis, answering vital questions such as: How do religious stories carry or distort psychological truth? How do religions work psychologically? What is the nature of religious experience? Are there parallels between psychoanalysis and particular religious traditions? Psychoanalysis and Religion in the 21st Century will be of great interest to psychoanalysts, psychoanalytic therapists, psychodynamic counsellors and anyone interested in the issues surrounding psychoanalysis, religion, theology and spirituality.

Goldberg, 2013-06-17 Postmodern Self Psychology the last volume of the Progress in Self Psychology series under the editorship of Arnold Goldberg charts the path of self psychology into the postmodern era of psychoanalysis It begins with Goldberg's thoughtful consideration of the several tributaries of self psychological thought in the decades after Kohut and continues with Mark Gehrie's elaboration of reflective realism as a self psychological way out of epistemological quagmires about the essential reality of the analytic endeavor Clinical contributions offer contemporary perspectives on clinical themes that engaged Kohut in the 1970s a study of the effect of moments of meeting on systems of pathological accommodation a reappraisal of empathy as a bi directional negation and an assessment of the diverse clinical phenomena that justify a prolonged understanding only phase of treatment The theory section of Volume 18 comparably charts the movement of self psychology toward a postmodern sensibility Contributors reappraise intersubjectivity theory as a contextualist treatment approach consistent with dynamic systems theory return to Kohut's concept of selfobject relationships with special attention to the separate subjective and intersubjective components of selfobject experiences and develop one of Kohut's early ideas into a theory of forward edge transferences that strengthen normal self development In all Volume 18 is a richly insightful progress report on the current status of self psychology and a fitting capstone to Arnold Goldberg's distinguished tenure as editor of the Progress in Self Psychology series
