An Unfinished Conversation:

Unfinished Conversation Robert Lesoine, Marilynne Chophel, 2009-08-14 Unfinished Conversations is a story of profound grief and the journey to healing that followed. Based on a journal Robert Lesoine kept during the two years following the suicide of his best friend, Unfinished Conversations will help readers through the process of reflecting on and affirming the raw immediacy of survivors' emotions. Each short chapter focuses on a different aspect of the author's experience as he transforms his anger and guilt to understanding and forgiveness. Licensed psychotherapist Marilynne Chophel brings her professional background to Robert Lesoine's deeply personal story to create an accessible path to self-directed healing based on mindful awareness and sound clinical practices. Readers work through their own grieving and healing process with end-of-chapter exercises and activities. An appendix and website unfinishedconversation.com provide additional resources to survivors. The tools and techniques in Unfinished Conversations will help readers release past trauma, honor their relationship with their lost loved one, and find greater perspective, meaning, and well-being in their lives. A Century of Communication Studies Pat J. Gehrke, William M. Keith, 2015 The Unfinished Conversation Mark Sealy, Gaëtane Verna, 2016-09

Festschrift in Honour of Kathy Charmaz Antony Bryant, Adele E. Clarke, 2022-11-14 This Festschrift to honour Kathy Charmaz's scholarship features fourteen chapters plus an editor's introduction exploring CGT extensively, examining topics including Indigenization of the method, its approaches to decolonizing research, uses of CGT in social justice research, and the legacies of Kathy Charmaz's remarkable mentorship. Love and Vulnerability Pelagia Goulmari, 2021-05-15 Love and Vulnerability Thinking with Pamela Sue Anderson developed out of the desire for dialogue with the late feminist philosopher Pamela Sue Anderson's extraordinary previously unpublished last work on love and vulnerability. The collection publishes this work for the first time with a diverse multidisciplinary international range of contributors responding to it to Anderson's oeuvre as a whole and to her life and death. Anderson's path-breaking work includes A Feminist Philosophy of Religion 1998 and Re-visioning Gender in Philosophy of Religion: Reason, Love, and Epistemic Locatedness 2012. Her last work critiques then attempts to rebuild concepts of love and vulnerability. Reason, critical self-reflexivity, emotion, intuition, and imagination, myth, and narrative all have a role to play. Social justice, friendship, conversation, dialogue, collective work are central to her thinking. Contributors trace the emergence of Anderson's late thinking, extend her conversations with the history of philosophy and contemporary voices such as hooks and Butler, and bring her work into contact with debates in theology, Continental and analytic philosophy, feminist, queer, and transgender theory, postcolonial theory, African American studies. Discussions engage with the Me Too movement and sexual violence, climate change, sweatshops, neoliberalism, death and dying, and the nature of the human. Originally published as a special issue of the journal Angelaki, this large wide-ranging collection featuring a number of distinguished contributors makes a significant contribution to the burgeoning interdisciplinary research on interpersonal relations, sympathy and empathy, affect and emotion. Queering the Non/Human Myra J. Hird, 2016-05-23

What might it mean to queer the Human By extension how is the Human employed within queer theory These questions invite a reconsideration of the way we think about queer theory the category of the Human and the act of queering itself This interdisciplinary volume of essays gathers together essays by international pioneering scholars in queer theory critical theory cultural studies and science studies who have written on topics as diverse as Christ the Antichrist dogs starfish werewolves vampires murderous dolls cartoons corpses bacteria nanoengineering biomesis the incest taboo the death drive and the queer in queer theory Contributors include Robert Azzarello Karen Barad Phillip A Bernhardt House Jeffrey Jerome Cohen Claire Colebrook Noreen Giffney Judith Halberstam Donna J Haraway Eva Hayward Myra J Hird Karalyn Kendall Vicki Kirby Alice Kuzniar Patricia MacCormack Robert Mills Luciana Parisi and Erin Runions

The Essay Film After Fact and Fiction Nora M. Alter, 2018-01-02 Nora M Alter reveals the essay film to be a hybrid genre that fuses the categories of feature art and documentary film Like its literary predecessor the essay film draws on a variety of forms and approaches in the process it fundamentally alters the shape of cinema The Essay Film After Fact and Fiction locates the genre's origins in early silent cinema and follows its transformation with the advent of sound its legitimation in the postwar period and its multifaceted development at the turn of the millennium In addition to exploring the broader history of the essay film Alter addresses the innovative ways contemporary artists such as Martha Rosler Isaac Julien Harun Farocki John Akomfrah and Hito Steyerl have taken up the essay film in their work

Challenging Status Quo Retrenchment Curry Malott, Brad J. Porfilio, Tricia M. Kress, 2013-03-01 This year 2012 marks ten years of No Child Left Behind and the U S federal government's official designation of what qualifies as scientifically based research SBR in education Combined these two policies have resulted in a narrowing of education via standardization and high stakes testing Au 2007 as well as the curtailment of forms of inquiry that are deemed legitimate for examining education Wright 2006 While there has been much debate about the benefits and limitations of the NCLB legislation e g Au 2010 and SBR e g Eisenhart Towne 2003 critical researchers have held strong to their position The reductionistic narrowing of education curricula and educational research cannot solve the present and historical inequities in society and education Shields 2012 Contrarily reductionism via standardization and or methodological prescription exacerbates the challenges we face because it effectively erases the epistemological ontological and axiological diversity necessary for disrupting hegemonic social structures that lie at the root of human suffering Kincheloe 2004 Not only has NCLB proven incapable of overcoming inequalities but there seems to be sufficient evidence to suggest it was never really intended to eliminate poverty and human suffering That is it seems NCLB despite its lofty title and public discourse is actually designed to advance the agenda of handing public education over to for profit corporations to manage and privatize thereby intensifying the capitalist class war on those who rely on a wage to survive Malott 2010 In the present ethos reductionism upholds and retrenches the status quo i e the basic structures of power and it puts at risk education and educational research as means of working toward social justice Biesta 2007 Because social justice can be interpreted in multiple ways we might note that we understand critical social justice as oriented toward action and social change Thus critical education and research may have potential to contribute to a number of social justice imperatives such as redistributing land from the neo colonizing settler state to Indigenous peoples halting exploitative labor relations and hazardous working conditions for wage earners and engaging in reparations with formerly enslaved communities
