Drawn from the Classics Stephen E. Tabachnick, Esther Bendit Saltzman, 2015-05-13 The graphic novel is the most exciting literary format to emerge in the past thirty years Among its more inspired uses has been the superlative adaptation of literary classics Unlike the comic book abridgments aimed at young readers of an earlier era today's graphic novel adaptations are created for an adult audience and capture the subtleties of sophisticated written works This first ever collection of essays focusing on graphic novel adaptations of various literary classics demonstrates how graphic narrative offers new ways of understanding the classics including the works of Homer Poe Flaubert Conrad and Kafka among many others

Women in Literature Jerilyn Fisher, Ellen Silber, 2003-06-30 With the literary canon consisting mostly of works created by and about men the central perspective is decidedly male This unique reference offers alternate approaches to reading traditional literature as well as suggestions for expanding the canon to include more gender sensitive works Covering 96 of the most frequently taught works of fiction essays offer teachers librarians and students fresh insights into the female perspective in literature The list of titles created in consultation with educators includes classic works by male authors like Dickens Faulkner and Twain balanced with works by female authors such as Kate Chopin's The Awakening and Mary Shelley's Frankenstein. Also included are contemporary works by writers such as Alice Walker and Margaret Atwood that are being incorporated into the curriculum as well as those advancing a more global view such as Sandra Cisneros' House on Mango Street and Chinua Achebe's Things Fall Apart. The essays are expertly written in an accessible language that will help students gain greater awareness of gender-related themes. Suggestions for classroom discussions with selected works for further study are incorporated into the entries.
