Appropriating English Innovation In The:

Appropriating English Michael Singh, Peter Kell, Ambigapathy Pandian, 2002 Aimed at those who teach English to speakers of other languages this volume considers English as an increasingly global language that rules both business and cyberspace It considers as well the causes for concern as English is turned into a commercial product its role in the death of other languages and in the political project of creating an integrated global economy The authors who are associated with the U of Melbourne and U Sains Malaysia write that their goal is to call for paradigmatic innovations in English language teaching new frames of reference for reinventing the project of globalizing English that situate it within a perspective of risk analysis and make use of multivocal Englishes to help sustain the biolinguistic diversity of humanity Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR

Neoliberalization of English Language Policy in the Global South Ali Jalalian Daghigh, Jariah Mohd Jan, Sheena Kaur, 2022-03-25 This book investigates different ways in which neoliberal language and teaching policies have influenced the English language in global south countries across Asia Africa and Latin America Through the three main sub themes covered by the book namely Neoliberalism and English Language Teaching Policies Neoliberalism Ideology as in English Language Teaching Materials and Experiences of Neoliberal Subjects it investigates various aspects and means through which neoliberalism is realized in a variety of contexts Through the first subtheme the volume covers the English language education policies of Chile Bangladesh India and Morocco The second sub theme concerns how different neoliberal values such as consumerism entrepreneurship and individualism are localized and constructed in the locally developed English language materials of Thailand Taiwan Malaysia and Vietnam The third sub theme includes studies on the impact of neoliberalization of English in relation to Colombian Brazilian and Pakistani stakeholders This book is a valuable resource for academics postgraduate students researchers policy makers educators and practitioners who are interested in neoliberalism in English language

Globalizing Education Michael W. Apple, Jane Kenway, Michael Singh, 2005 Because globalization is expressed in many ways and evokes complex responses it demands various lines of analysis Globalizing Education shows how this phenomenon is mediated and mitigated by a range of educational policies pedagogies and politics It identifies the forms of educational governance associated with neoliberal globalism and their manifold effects on nation state education systems highlighting the colonizing minority world imperatives and retraditionalizing ramifications It also shows how the global cultural economy the disjunctive flows of images people and ideas both challenges and reinforces conventional educational trajectories The global national mesh works created by drugs technology and unions are among the complicated connectivities explored This book exposes the more pernicious effects on education of neo liberal and corporate globalization and explores and identifies innovative and transformative educational policies pedagogies and politics
