Ammunition For Peacemakers Answers For Activists:

Ammunition for Peacemakers Phillips P. Moulton,1986 Ethics and Liberation Charles L. Kammer,2002-12-26

The introduction to the nature and purpose of Christian ethics presents an ethical theory consistent with the fundamental insights of the Christian tradition Ethics and Liberation outlines an ethic which provides guidelines for responsible stands on contemporary issues be they personal or socio political Exploring both the strengths and weaknesses of traditional Christian ethics Kammer proposes going beyond them to an ethic of theonomous responsibility one based on the precepts of liberation theology Stressing the socio political dimension of ethics Kammer follows the threads of Christian tradition that led to an emphasis on personal salvation and a neglect of social issues Finally he traces the path from Christian realism through liberation theology Ethics and Liberation concludes with a discussion of two serious test cases in contemporary moral issues the distribution of health care and nuclear disarmament Historical Dictionary of Arms Control and Disarmament Jeffrey A. Larsen,James M. Smith,2005-03-25 Historical Dictionary of Arms Control and Disarmament provides a historical review of key themes and issues in international security and arms control focusing on efforts in the 20th century to control the spread and use of armaments and to prevent war This book summarizes the rich and proud traditions of arms control and disarmament their critical role in ensuring a non catastrophic course throughout history especially the dangerous period of the Cold War and their continuing relevance and role in the emerging post Cold War world It also seeks to reinforce a broad perspective of key terms in order to capture the scope and range of their application yesterday today and tomorrow Given this combined tradition and focus this Dictionary serves two purposes As a historical dictionary it chronicles key terms personalities events and agreements as a ready reference from which to launch a more extensive investigation But it also seeks to capture the breadth of current and future applications by presenting the vocabulary of traditional and non traditional approaches The book includes a large dictionary of more than 1 000 key terms as well as a comprehensive bibliography divided into multiple categories an extensive chronology and a timeline This book can also serve as a useful desk reference for the policy practitioner The pace and intensity of the practice of arms control often eliminates the luxury of conventional study of past or related arms control efforts The dictionary seeks to provide a relevant sampling of treaty and agreement details and of the specific terms of reference of arms control to allow productive progress in a policy work environment Researchers and students will also find the dictionary to be a useful reference tool Much of the formal literature in the field such as treaty texts and policy pronouncements is written in technical language without elaboration Also many references to agreements are posed in shorthand intended only for the policy practitioner Basic Reference Sources Margaret Taylor,Ronald R. nonviolent response to conflict and violence By presenting and analyzing some of the most significant answers that have been given to this question throughout history this anthology of writings from both Western and nonwestern traditions proposes principled and strategic nonviolence as a realistic alternative It includes a selection of historical sources on nonviolence ranging from the Bhagavad Gita to the Bible as well as a wide range of writings by authors such as Gandhi Martin Luther King Jr and Nelson Mandela who have contributed to both the theory and the practice of nonviolence Besides tracing the historical development of the concept this volume also suggests ways of applying nonviolence to our everyday lives in the first decade of the 21st century which the United Nations General Assembly has declared to be the Decade for Education for a Culture of Peace and Nonviolence Towards a Peaceful Resolution of Conflicts in Nigeria Casmir Maduakor,1999 When I speak of love I am not speaking of some sentimental and weak response I am speaking of that force which all great religions have seen as the supreme unifying principle of life Love is somehow the key that unlocks the door which leads to ultimate reality This Hindu Moslem Christian Jewish Buddhist belief about the ultimate reality is beautifully summed up in the first epistle of Saint John Let us love one another for love is God and every one that loveth is born of God and knoweth God M L King Jr Join African to Hindu Moslem Christian Jewish Buddhist then this statement summarizes the major content of the work This investigation does not claim to cover or solve all the problems in Nigeria It rather examines the central principles of peaceful resolution of conflicts investigates King s background and intellectual development culminating on his concepts of nonviolent resistance Further the modus vivendi of the early Christians and Igbo concepts of Ala Earth and Oji Kola nut in the light of Catholic Social Teachings are closely investigated The result indicates that their application can usher in political and religious peace in Nigeria Quaker Life ,1988 Arms Control Today ,1986
