An Econometric Model of Postwar State Industrial Development Wilbur Richard Thompson, John M. Mattila, 1973-11-15 State Industrial Development Wilbur Richard Thompson, John M. Mattila, 1959 Socio-Economic Models in Geography (Routledge Revivals) Richard Chorley, Peter Haggett, 2013-10-14 First published in 1968 this book explores the theme of geographical generalization or model building It is composed of seven of the chapters from the original Models in Geography published in 1967 The first chapter broadly outlines this theme and examines the nature and function of generalized statements ranging from conceptual models to scale models in a geographical context The following six chapters deal with socio economic building in geography They focus on demographic and sociological models as well as looking at special aspects of models in human geography in reference to economic development urban geography and settlement location industrial location and agricultural activity This book represents a robustly anti idiographic statement of modern work in one of the major branches of geography A Study of Industry Location Using Multiple Regression Techniques Robert G. Spiegelman, 1968 Industrial Development Bond Financing United States. Advisory Commission on Intergovernmental Relations, 1963 An Economic Model of Postwar State Industrial Development Wilbur R. Thompson, John M. Mattila, 1959 An Economic Study of the City of London John Dunning, Victor E. Morgan, 2013-10-08 This was the first comprehensive study of the City of London to be published The study examines the economic structure of the city and considers the main influences likely to affect the development of the City including the pattern of demand technological change population movements supply of labour and land values Particular attention is paid to the City's international role Specific chapters are devoted to Banking Finance Insurance Trade Commerce and the Port and the Manufacturing Industry The book is supported with a wealth of statistical material based on original research and contains 116 tables and 28 diagrams Economic Research Relevant to the Formulation of National Urban Development Strategies James Douglas McCallum, Lowdon Wingo, Wilbur Thompson, H.W. Richardson, Joel Bergsman, Peter Greenston, Robert Healy, Edwin S. Mills, Alan W. Evans, 2017-09-29 Originally published in 1971 this volume contains papers invited for a conference on economic research relevant to national urban development held in September of the same year The conference pulled together researchers from both the United Kingdom and the United States who were interested in economic research on key issues of both countries management of their urban areas Papers are varied from those in the early stages of research to those whose research has been completed and all provide an insight into the increase of urbanisation present in the first world This title will be of interest to students of environmental studies and economics The Rise of the Entrepreneurial State Peter K. Eisinger, 1988 The Rise of the Entrepreneurial State charts the development of state and local government initiatives to influence the market and strengthen economic development policies This trend marked a decisive break from governments traditionally small role in the affairs of private industry that defined the relationship between the public and private sector for the first half of the twentieth century The turn to state and local government intervention signaled a change in subnational politics that in many ways transcended partisan politics regional distinctions and racial alliances Eisinger s meticulous research uncovers state and local governments transition from supply side to demand side strategies of market creation He shows that instead of relying solely on the supply side strategies of tax breaks and other incentives to encourage business relocation some governments promoted innovation and the creation of new business approaches
