Amsterdam Life Of City:

The city trip guide for Zaanstad (The Netherlands) YouGuide Ltd, The city trip guide for Amstelveen\(TheNetherlands\)
, Amsterdam Diaries, Life Writing and Identity Laura Hasselt, Marleen Rensen, Leonieke Vermeer, Ernestine Hoegen, 2025-10-20 This volume invites readers to rediscover Amsterdam through the intimate lens of its inhabitants Amsterdam Diaries Life Writing and Identity offers a rich and layered portrayal of the city through the self narratives of ordinary individuals from the eighteenth century to the present Exploring diaries letters oral histories and digital self expressions this volume reveals how people have experienced navigated and shaped their urban environment across time It bridges life writing studies and urban history shedding light on questions of identity belonging and the emotional bonds between individuals and the city Special attention is given to marginalised voices including migrant experiences and to the evolving forms of self representation in the digital age Expanding the boundaries of life writing the collection even incorporates non human perspectives such as dogs and bicycles Together these diverse narratives offer a kaleidoscopic view of life in Amsterdam illustrating how the city is both a shared space and a deeply personal landscape Amsterdam Geoffrey Cotterell, 1972 Conceiving Sexuality Richard G. Parker, John H. Gagnon, 2013-11-15 First Published in 1995 After widespread neglect over many years the study of human sexuality has recently come to the forefront of many of the most important debates in contemporary society and culture The continued development of feminist theory the emergence of gay and lesbian studies and the impact of the international AIDS pandemic have combined to focus new attention on the ways in which gender and sexuality are shaped in different social and cultural settings and on the complex interactions between sexuality and health in the late twentieth century Edited by two of the leading figures in contemporary sex research Conceiving Sexuality brings together the contributions of writers from a wide range of social science disciplines and cultural traditions who are working at the cutting edge of contemporary sex research Focusing on key areas of concern such as gender power relations the formation of sexual identities the dynamics of sexual desire and the social construction of sexual risk the essays in Conceiving Sexuality provide an important overview of the most pressing topical and theoretical issues currently shaping debate in international and cross cultural research on sexuality City Logistics 1 Eiichi Taniguchi, Russell G. Thompson, 2018-05-24 This volume of three books presents recent advances in modelling planning and evaluating city logistics for sustainable and liveable cities based on the application of ICT Information and Communication Technology and ITS Intelligent Transport Systems It highlights modelling the behaviour of stakeholders who are involved in city logistics as well as planning and managing policy measures of city logistics including cooperative freight transport systems in public private partnerships Case studies of implementing and evaluating city logistics measures in terms of economic social and environmental benefits from major cities around the world are also given Amsterdam's Canal District Jan Nijman, 2020-09-10 In terms of design scale and blending of ecological and aesthetic function Amsterdam's seventeenth century Canal District is a European marvel Its survival for four centuries is a testament to its ingenuity reflected in its designation as a UNESCO World Heritage Site in 2010 The Canal District today is an extraordinary example of resilient historic design and cultural heritage in a living city but it is not without present day challenges in recent years its urban ecology has become subject to severe pressures of global tourism and supergentrification This edited volume brings together seventeen reputable scholars to debate questions about the origins evolution and future of the Canal District With these differing approaches and perspectives on the Canal District the contributions render a collection where the whole is much more than the sum of the parts The book breaks new ground in our understanding of the District s historic design its evolution over four hundred years and the fundamental issues in future facing strategies and policies While the main focus is clearly on Amsterdam the discussions in this collection have an important bearing on broader questions of urban historic preservation elsewhere and on questions about enduring urban design

Migrant Professionals in the City

Lars Meier, 2014-07-17 The migration of professionals is widely seen as a paradigmatic representation and a driver of globalization The global elite of highly qualified migrants managers and scientists for example are partly defined by their lives mobility But their everyday lives are based and take place in specific cities The contributors of this book analyze the relevance of locality for a mobile group and provide a new perspective on migrant professionals by considering the relevance of social identities for local encounters in socially unequal cities Contributors explore shifting identities senses of belonging and spatial and social inequalities and encounters between migrant professionals and Others within the cities These qualitative studies widen the understanding of the importance of local aspects for the social identities of those who are in many aspects more privileged than others
