

infection does not mean death is at hand, to provide spiritual education and support, and to have a running school in future.

4. OBJECTIVES

- a) To construct and finish up the health centre for the population of Nyanchabukonye and Mori (Olang) villages by 2017/2018
- b) To reduce the incidence of mortality and morbidity, malnutrition antenatal care, post-natal care and immunization services.
- c) To support and supplement special health related activities and preventive programs such as literacy training for sanitation and low cost methods of providing safe drinking water and hygienic latrines.
- d) To provide employment to the locals and improve their living standards.
- e) To treat needy patients, particularly destitute families.
- f) To eradicate poverty
- g) To sensitize the community about HIV/AIDS
- h) To reduce the barrier of accessing health services by 85% by 2017/2018
- i) To provide improved health services to Nyanchabukonye and Mori(Olang) Community by 2017
- j) To provide voluntary counselling and test services in the Nyanchabukonye and Mori(Olang) community by 2017

5. PROBLEM STATEMENT

Tanzania, like many countries of the developing world, is faced with the challenge of providing adequate health services to all her people. However, available national Resources, especially finance, are insufficient to implement this mammoth task.

Within the Nyanchabukonye village there is only one government clinic located near this area but it does not address all the health needs services. In order to access these services the community people have to travel more than 20 km. The Roads in this area are not well passable thus during the night it is difficult to find Transport to access mother and child health services. As a result many expecting women deliver at home or on the way without being attended by health personnel. This causes a High incidence of child mortality.
