The Beloved Woman Joanne Davis,2023-06-02 This book disagrees about the traditional viewpoint of the Christian wife s role at home and advocates married women to work and have their own careers This viewpoint is based on careful exegesis of the relevant biblical scriptures throughout the Bible It also proposes that fathers rather than mothers shall be primary teachers for their children at home In addition this book also suggests that mothers should not take on the responsibility for homeschooling unless they are called to teach young people at home Hope these refreshed biblical interpretations from a female Calvinist can shed new light on Christian women's roles and virtue at home Those Practical Proverbs David A.
