American History and National Security, 1989 Economics and National Security Steve L. Miller, 1989

Resources in education, 1991 Obama and the Bomb Frank Leith Jones, 2025-11-20 This book is the first study of how President Barack Obama and his administration used the negotiation and ratification of an arms control treaty the New Strategic Arms Reduction Treaty New START as a vehicle for advancing one of the president's primary foreign policy objectives a reset of US relations with Russia in the early years of his first term of office It is a study of the administration's efforts to move from a president's strategic vision to defining that vision as a policy priority and ultimately successfully negotiating what the president deemed the first and most important element of the reset agenda Terror, Security, and Money John Mueller, Mark G. Stewart, 2011-10-07 In seeking to evaluate the efficacy of post 9 11 homeland security expenses which have risen by more than a trillion dollars not including war costs the common query has been Are we safer This however is the wrong question Of course we are safer the posting of a single security guard at one building's entrance enhances safety The correct question is Are any gains in security worth the funds expended In this engaging readable book John Mueller and Mark Stewart apply risk and cost benefit evaluation techniques to answer this very question This analytical approach has been used throughout the world for decades by regulators academics and businesses but as a recent National Academy of Science study suggests it has never been capably applied by the people administering homeland security funds Given the limited risk terrorism presents expenses meant to lower it have for the most part simply not been worth it For example to be considered cost effective increased American homeland security expenditures would have had each year to have foiled up to 1 667 attacks roughly like the one intended on Times Square in 2010 more than four a day Cataloging the mistakes that the US has made and continues to make in managing homeland security programs Terror Security and Money has the potential to redirect our efforts toward a more productive and far more cost effective course Arms Control and Disarmament United States Department of State. External Research Staff, 1966 In Uncertain Times Melvyn P. Leffler, Jeffrey W. Legro, 2011-05-15 In Uncertain Times considers how policymakers react to dramatic developments on the world stage Few expected the Berlin Wall to come down in November 1989 no one anticipated the devastating attacks on the World Trade Center and the Pentagon in September 2001 American foreign policy had to adjust quickly to an international arena that was completely transformed Melvyn P Leffler and Jeffrey W Legro have assembled an illustrious roster of officials from the George H W Bush Clinton and George W Bush administrations Robert B Zoellick Paul Wolfowitz Eric S Edelman Walter B Slocombe and Philip Zelikow These policymakers describe how they went about making strategy for a world fraught with possibility and peril They offer provocative reinterpretations of the economic strategy advanced by the George H W Bush administration the bureaucratic clashes over policy toward the breakup of the USSR the creation of the Defense Policy Guidance of 1992 the expansion of NATO the writing of the National Security Strategy Statement of 2002 and the invasion of

Iraq in 2003 A group of eminent scholars address these same topics Bruce Cumings John Mueller Mary Elise Sarotte Odd Arne Westad and William C Wohlforth probe the unstated assumptions the cultural values and the psychological makeup of the policymakers They examine whether opportunities were seized and whether threats were magnified and distorted They assess whether academicians and independent experts would have done a better job than the policymakers did Together policymakers and scholars impel us to rethink how our world has changed and how policy can be improved in the future
