American Historical Review Volume 96 No3:

The Standard of Living and Revolutions in Russia, 1700-1917 Boris Nikolaevich Mironov, 2012 This is the first full scale anthropometric history of Imperial Russia 1700 1917 It mobilizes an immense volume of archival material to chart the growth weight and other anthropometric indicators of the male and female populations in order to chart how the standard of living in Russia changed over slightly more than two centuries It draws on a wide range of data statistics on agricultural production taxation prices and wages nutrition and demography to draw conclusions on the dynamics in the standard of living over this long period of time The economic social and political interpretation of these findings make it possible to reconsider the prevailing views in the historiography and to offer a new perspective on Imperial Russia Discourse and Culture Alun Munslow, 2013-04-03 Written history is literary artifact taking this as its starting point Discourse and Culture argues that the Foucauldian concept of the shifting scale of linguistic and historic values must be the central focus for a new interpretation of American culture and ideology Six major American historical figures are evaluated as products of the conflict between subordinate and dominant influences in American society steelmaster Andrew Carnegie labour leader Terence V Powderly historian of the West Frederick J Turner social reconstructionist Jane Addams race leader Booker T Washington and black nationalist W E B du Bois Discourse and Culture re assesses the relationship between ideology and cultural formation by asking if cultural change can be explained as a function of discourse The book draws upon the ideas of Althusser Gramsci and Hayden to address this issue which lies at the very heart of contemporary debate on the character of cultural history

Deconstructing History Alun Munslow, 1997 In Deconstructing History Alan Munslow examines history in the postmodern age providing an introduction to the topics and debates inherent in a postmodern approach to history Detailing both empiricist and deconstruction issues and considering the arguments of both schools Munslow debates the position that not only is history defined as the textual product of historians but also that narrative may provide the textual model for the past itself An examination of the character of historical evidence and an exploration of the role of historians as well as a discussion of the failure of traditional historical models is included Munslow maps the controversies involved in and assesses the merits of the deconstructionist position arguing that instead of beginning with past events themselves history begins with representations of the past

The Future of History Alun Munslow, 2010-07-30 In this radical reassessment Alun Munslow challenges conventional notions of history and offers a new vision of historical thinking and practice Deploying a range of concepts such as scepticism aesthetics ethics standpoint irony authorship and a new understanding of truth The Future of History examines history as a form of knowledge in itself arguing that in the future the multiple forms of its expression will be as significant as its content This thought provoking challenging and unique book offers a way forward for history after postmodernism and is essential reading for anyone asking the question what is history

Creating Consent in Ba'thist Syria Esther Meininghaus, 2016-03-31 The challenge of maintaining dictatorial regimes through control co option and coercion while upholding a facade of legitimacy is something that has concerned leaders throughout the Middle East and beyond Nowhere is this more evident than in the Syria ruled by the Asads both Hafiz and his son Bashar Drawing on the example of the General Union of Syrian Women founded in 1967 Esther Meininghaus offers new insights into how the Syrian Ba thist regimes attempted to move beyond mere satisfaction with the compliance of the citizenry and to consolidate their rule amongst the local population Meininghaus argues that this was partially achieved through providing welfare services delivered by the Union as one of the state led mass organisations In this way she suggests these regimes did not only aim to undermine opposition and to create the illusion of consent but they factually catered to local needs and depended on consent Based on archival material interviews and statistics Creating Consent in Ba thist Syria will shed new light on mass organisations as a crucial institution of Ba thist state building and more broadly the construction of the Asad regimes

Narrating the Nation Stefan Berger,Linas Eriksonas,Andrew Mycock,2008-10-01 A sustained and systematic study of the construction erosion and reconstruction of national histories across a wide variety of states is highly topical and extremely relevant in the context of the accelerating processes of Europeanization and globalization However as demonstrated in this volume histories have not of course only been written by professional historians Drawing on studies from a number of different European nation states the contributors to this volume present a systematic exploration of the representation of the national paradigm In doing so they contextualize the European experience in a more global framework by providing comparative perspectives on the national histories in the Far East and North America As such they expose the complex variables and diverse actors that lie behind the narration of a nation Siberia Victor L Mote,2018-02-07 Known to most as a realm of exile and labor camps Siberia is also one of the world s wealthiest resource bases This harsh vast land constitutes nearly three quarters of Russia s territory yet after four centuries of Slavic migration and procreation it is home to a mere 32 million people In this comprehensive book Victor Mote illuminates the dichotomy between Siberia s rich treasurehouse of resources and its peripheral relationship to the rest of the world With this paradox in mind he traces the region s history from the Stone Age to the present emphasizing the unique blend of wit and will developed by inhabitants to survive one of the most brutal environments in the world a land that has been part colony part prison and part frontier Mote also explores the geography ethnography economics and politics of Siberia and its people providing a multidisciplinary perspective for scholars and general readers alike interested in Eurasia s forgotten quarter The Business of Abolishing the British Slave Trade, 1783-1807 Judith Jennings,2013-11-12 This study presents new information about the four Quaker businessmen who helped found the London Abolition Committee in 1787 and remained active in the late anti slave trade movement throughout their lifetimes Drawing on previously unused primary sources the study traces the close personal business social and religious ties binding the men together and shaping their abolition activities and arguments By closely examining the lives of Joseph Woods James Philips George Harrison and Samuel Hoare the study presents a new view of the factors shaping the arguments and strategies of abolitionism in Britain John Rawls and American Pragmatism Daniele Botti,2019-10-11 The textual and contextual connections between John Rawls's intellectual figure and American pragmatism broadly conceived have become topics of discussion only recently This is at least in part due to the fact that Rawls seemed to have taken a pragmatic turn in his intellectual trajectory from A Theory of Justice 1971 to Political Liberalism 1993 John Rawls and American Pragmatism Between Engagement and Avoidance intervenes in these discussions with two unconventional claims corroborated by archival research First Daniele Botti shows that Rawls's thinking owes more to the American pragmatists' views than is generally recognized Second and in the light of the pragmatist sources of Rawls's thinking Botti argues that we should reverse the common narrative about Rawls's alleged pragmatic turn and interpret it as a quite unpragmatic one By making the case for interpreting Rawls as an American pragmatist this book profoundly transforms not only a widely held interpretation about Rawls's intellectual trajectory but also our understanding of American philosophical vicissitude in the second half of the twentieth century THE EMPIRE OF APOSTLES Ananya Chakravarti,2018-05-18 The Portuguese encounter with the peoples of South Asia and Brazil set foundational precedents for European imperialism Jesuit missionaries were key participants in both regions As they sought to reconcile three commitments to local missionary spaces to a universal Church and to the global Portuguese empire the Jesuits forged a religious vision of empire Ananya Chakravarti explores both indigenous and European experiences to show how these missionaries learned to negotiate everything with the diverse peoples they encountered and that nothing could simply be imposed Yet Jesuits repeatedly wrote home in language celebrating triumphal impositions of European ideas and practices upon indigenous people In the process while empire was built through distinctly ambiguous interactions Europeans came to imagine themselves in imperial moulds In this dynamic in which the difficult lessons of empire came to be learned and forgotten repeatedly Chakravarti demonstrates an enduring and overlooked characteristic of European imperialism
