American Impressionism California School:

American Impressionism, California School Jean Stern, 1989 California Impressionism William H. Gerds, Will South, 1998 Lavishly illustrated meticulously researched and gracefully written this definitive study of California's distinctive style of impressionism surveys the movement's sources abroad its most influential artists and the critical responses to the style 248 illustrations 201 in color In and Out of California Deborah Epstein Solon, Will South, 2002 A comprehensive survey of Impressionist art of a generation of California artists that have until now been overlooked 70 colour plates

American Impressionism, California School , 1989 California Impressionists Susan Landauer, Georgia Museum of Art, Irvine Museum, Atlanta Committee for the Olympic Games, 1996 The years around the turn of the century were a dynamic time in American art Different and seemingly contradictory movements were evolving and the dominant style that emerged during this period was Impressionism Based in part on the broken brushwork and high keyed palette of Claude Monet it was a form especially suited to the dramatic landscape and shimmering light of California This book celebrates forty Impressionist painters who worked in California from 1900 through the beginning of the Great Depression it includes widely recognized California artists such as Maurice Braun and Guy Rose less well known artists such as Mary DeNeale Morgan and Donna Schuster and eastern painters who worked briefly in the region such as Childe Hassam and William Merritt Chase The contributors essays examine the socioeconomic forces that shaped this art movement as well as the ways in which the art reflected California's self cultivated image as a healthful sun splashed arcadia An American Impressionist Deborah Epstein Solon, 2005 Intended as the companion art book to a travelling exhibition An American Impressionist The Art And Life Of Alson Skinner Clark is the first in depth scrutiny of the American Impressionist painter Alson Skinner Clark 1876 1949 Featuring 77 colour plates and 10 halftones of Clark's work ranging from nude figures to bustling urban centres to panoramic scenes from all over the world An American Impressionist pairs the raw beauty and gentle imagery of the oil on canvas works with a brief discussion of Clark's life his marriage travels abroad the toll World War I took upon him his obscure retirement and the recent rediscovery of his contributions particularly to the Impressionist tradition in California where Clark made a name and lasting memory for himself among the local art community Especially recommended for collectors students and connoisseurs of the Impressionist style 77 colour 10 halftone plates Shows of Force Timothy W. Luke, 1992 It has long been considered a mark of naiveté to ask of a work of art What does it say But as Timothy W Luke demonstrates in Shows of Force artwork is capable of saying plenty and much of the message resides in the way it is exhibited By critically examining the exhibition of art in contemporary American museums Luke identifies how art showings are elaborate works of theater that reveal underlying political social and economic agendas The first section Envisioning a Past Imagining the West looks at art exhibitions devoted to artworks about or from the American West Luke shows how these exhibitions displaying nineteenth and early twentieth century works by artists such as George Caleb Bingham Frederic

Remington Frederic Edwin Church and Georgia O Keefe express contemporary political agendas in the way they portray the past and shape new visions of the West In Developing the Present Defining a World Luke considers artists from the post 1945 era including Ilya Kabakov Hans Haacke Sue Coe Roger Brown and Robert Longo Recent art exhibits his analysis reveals attempt to develop politically charged conceptions of the present which in turn struggle to define the changing contemporary world and art's various roles within it Luke brings to light the contradictions encoded in the exhibition of art and in doing so illuminates the political realities and cultural ideologies of the present Shows of Force offers a timely and surely controversial contribution to current discussions of the politics of exhibiting art Impressionism, the California View, 1981

America's Art Museums Suzanne Loeb, 2002 A tour of America's most notable museums is also a history of the nation's art that highlights each location's top works while discussing the backgrounds of each building and featured piece of art

Childe Hassam, American Impressionist Helene Barbara Weinberg, 2004 This illustrated publication accompanies a major exhibition at the Metropolitan Museum the first retrospective presentation of Hassam's work in a museum since 1972 Unique to this volume are an account of Hassam's lifelong campaign to market his art a study of the frames he selected and designed for his paintings and an unprecedented lifetime exhibition record Included in addition are a checklist of works in the exhibition and a chronology of Hassam's life All works in the exhibition as well as comparative materials are reproduced
