Bioethics Warren T. Reich, 1998 Extracted from the 5 volume Encyclopedia of Bioethics this book takes a look at the concentrated look at the legal social moral and health related issues surrounding sex and reproduction The Ethics of Sex and Genetics Warren T. Reich, 1998 This single volume reference provides information answers and context for the often difficult questions arising from today's perception of sex and reproduction Among the topics covered are abortion AIDS lifestyles public health fertility genetics sexual ethics and prostitution A Life (Un)Worthy of Living Yael Hashiloni-Dolev, 2007-05-10 Based on a variety of empirical materials the study reveals dramatic differences between the way that the German and Israeli societies address the question of a life unworthy of living while in Germany social cultural religious and legal conditions restrict the selection of embryos based on prenatal diagnosis in Israel they strongly encourage it A close comparative analysis of the ways that these two societies handle the delicate balance between the quality and sanctity of life illuminates the controversy around reproductive genetics in an original and provocative way The study is also innovative in its use of contemporary social theory concerning the politics of life in comprehending the differences between two societies positioned at opposite extremes in their adoption of reproductive genetics It thus offers an original cross cultural discussion concerning present day techno medical manipulations of life itself Library Journal, 1998 The Library Journal, 1998-04 Includes beginning Sept 15 1954 and on the 15th of each month Sept May a special section School library journal ISSN 0000 0035 called Junior libraries 1954 May 1961 Also issued separately Directory of American Scholars: Philosophy, religion and law, 1999 Walford's Guide to Reference Material: Science and technology Albert John Walford, Library Association, 1999 A revised and updated guide to reference material It contains selective and evaluative entries to guide the enquirer to the best source of reference in each subject area be it journal article CD ROM on line database bibliography encyclopaedia monograph or directory It features full critical annotations and reviewers comments and comprehensive author title and subject indexes The contents include mathematics astronomy and surveying physics chemistry earth sciences palaeontology anthropology biology natural history botany zoology patents and interventions medicine engineering transport vehicles agriculture and livestock household management communication chemical industry manufactures industries trades and crafts and the building industry Freedom and Responsibility in Reproductive Choice J R Spencer, Antje du Bois-Pedain, 2006-04-03 What responsibilities if any do we have towards our genetic offspring before or after birth and perhaps even before creation merely by virtue of the genetic link What claims if any arise from the mere genetic parental relation Should society through its legal arrangements allow fatherless or motherless children to be born as the current law on medically assisted reproduction involving gamete donation in some legal systems does Does the possibility of establishing genetic parentage with practical certainty necessitate reform of current legal regimes of parenthood And what limits if any should we set on parental procreative choices in the interests of future children particularly with regard to genetic engineering and related techniques These are the questions explored in this book by some of the foremost legal bioethical and biomedical thinkers Assembled with a view to assisting the reader to reflect critically on the ongoing social experiment which medically assisted reproduction is today the essays in this collection highlight what are and what else might in the nearby future become possible reproductive options and respond to the difficulties we encounter in assessing these practices and possibilities from our traditional ethical vantage points
