Biography Writing Lives:

The Arvon Book of Life Writing Sally Cline, Carole Angier, 2010-06-01 Essential reading for anyone interested in writing biography or memoir with practical advice from successful biographers and creative writing teachers Writing Lives Together Felicity James, Julian North, 2017-09-27 A diary entry begun by a wife and finished by a husband a map of London its streets bearing the names of forgotten lives biographies of siblings and of spouses a poem which gives life to long dead voices from the archives All these feature in this volume as examples of writing lives together British life writing which has been collaboratively authored and or joins together the lives of multiple subjects The contributions to this book range over published and unpublished material from the late eighteenth to the late nineteenth centuries including biography auto biographical memoirs letters diaries sermons maps and directories The book closes with essays by contemporary practising biographers Daisy Hay and Laurel Brake who explain their decisions to move away from the single subject in writing the lives of figures from the Romantic and Victorian periods We conclude with the reflections and work of a contemporary poet Kathleen Bell writing on James Watt 1736 1819 and his family in a ghostly collaboration with the archives Taken as a whole the collection offers distinctive new readings of collaboration in theory and practice reflecting on the many ways in which lives might be written together across gender boundaries across time across genre This book was originally published as a special issue of Life Writing On Life-Writing Zachary Leader, 2015-10-08 Life writing is a generic term meant to encompass a range of writings about lives or parts of lives or which provide materials out of which lives or parts of lives are composed These writings include not only memoir autobiography biography diaries autobiographical fiction and biographical fiction but letters writs wills written anecdotes depositions marginalia lyric poems scientific and historical writings and digital forms including blogs tweets Facebook entries On Life Writing offers a sampling of approaches to the study of life writing introducing readers to something of the range of forms the term encompasses their changing fortunes and features the notions of life self and story which help to explain these changing fortunes and features recent attempts to group forms the permeability of the boundaries between forms the moral problems raised by life writing in all forms but particularly in fictional forms and the relations between life writing and history life writing and psychoanalysis life writing and philosophy The essays mostly focus on individual instances rather than fields whether historical theoretical or generic Generalizations are grounded in particulars For example the role of the life changing encounter a frequent trope in literary life writing is pondered by Hermione Lee through an account of a much storied first meeting between the philosopher Isaiah Berlin and the Russian poet Anna Akhmatova James Shapiro examines the history of the cradle to grave life narrative as well as the potential distortions it breeds by focusing on Shakespeare biography in particular attempts to explain Shakespeare's so called lost years Writing Life Writing Paul Eakin, 2020-07-02 Why do we endlessly tell the stories of our lives And why do others pay attention when we do The essays collected here address these questions focusing on three different but interrelated dimensions of life writing The first section Narrative argues that narrative is not only a literary form but also a social and cultural practice and finally a mode of cognition and an expression of our most basic physiology The next section Life Writing Historical Forms makes the case for the historical value of the subjectivity recorded in ego documents The essays in the final section Autobiography Now identify primary motives for engaging in self narration in an age characterized by digital media and quantum cosmology Life Writing. Contemporary Autobiography, Biography, and Travel Writing Koray Melikoglu, 2012-03-09 These proceedings of the international 2006 symposium The Theory and Practice of Life Writing Auto biography Memoir and Travel Writing in Post modern Literature at Hali University Istanbul include the majority of contributions to this event some of them heavily revised for publication A first group treatments of more comprehensive and or theoretical aspects of life and travel writing concerns genre history Nazan Aksoy Manfred Pfister typology Manfred Pfister Sidonie Smith and Julia Watson issues of narration Gerald P Mulderig Rana Tekcan the recent phenomenon of blogging Leman Giresunlu and therapeutic narrative Wendy Ryden A second group whose concern often heavily overlaps with the first in that it also pursues theoretical goals concentrates on individual authors and artists Sab Alt nsay and Dido Sotiriou Banu zel Samuel Beckett Oya Berk the sculptor Alexander Calder Barbara B Zabel G Thomas Couser and his filial memoir Moris Farhi Bronwyn Mills Jean Genet Clare Brandabur Henry James Laurence Raw Orhan Pamuk Dilek Dolta Ay e F Ece Sylvia Plath Richard J Larschan Edouard Roditi Clifford Endres Sara Rosenberg Claire Emilie Martin the dancer Mrinalini Sarabhai Leena Chandorkar Alev Tekinay zlem t Uwe Timm Jutta Birmele and female British and American Oriental travellers Tea Jansson Writing Lives Kevin Sharpe, Steven N. Zwicker, 2008-07-03 Biography appears to thrive as never before and there clearly remains a broad readership for literary biography But the methods and approaches of recent criticism which have contributed rich insights and asked new questions about the ways in which we interrogate and appreciate literature have scarcely influenced biography Biography as a form has been largely unaffected by either new critical or historical perspectives For early modern scholars the biographical model fashioned as a stable form in the eighteenth century has been in some respects a distorting lens onto early modern lives In the Renaissance and early modern period rather the biography s organic and developmental narratives of a coherent subject lives were written and represented in a bewildering array of textual sites and generic forms And such lives were clearly imagined and written not to entertain or even simply to inform but to edify and instruct to counsel and polemicize It is only when we understand how early moderns imagined and narrated lives only that is through a full return to history and an exact historicizing that we can newly conceive the meaning of those lives and begin to rewrite their histories free of the imperatives and teleologies of Enlightenment In Writing Lives literary scholars cultural critics and historians of ideas and visual media currently engaged both with early modern conceptions of the life and our own conceptualizing of the biographical project reflect on the problems of writing lives from the various perspectives of their own research and in the form of case studies informed by new questions Writing Lives Midge

Gillies,2009-06-25 In addition to exploring the key characteristics of life writing this book examines the relationship between the lives of authors and the influence of these lives both on their own writing and on the reception of their work by contemporary and later readers Writing Lives in the Eighteenth Century Tanya M. Caldwell,2020-09-18 Writing Lives in the Eighteenth Century is a collection of essays on memoir biography and autobiography during a formative period for the genre Employing the methodology William Godwin outlined for novelists of taking material from all sources experience report and the records of human affairs each contributor examines within the contexts of their time and historical traditions the anxieties and imperatives of the auto biographer as she or he shapes material into a legacy Writing Your Life Mary Borg,1998 This user friendly book helps any adult write an autobiography The questions cover all areas of life from early years to later years the writing tips provide practical guidance and the excerpts from autobiographies of real men and women provide inspiration Encyclopedia of Life Writing Margaretta Jolly,2013-12-04 First published in 2001 This is the first substantial reference work in English on the various forms that constitute life writing As this term suggests the Encyclopedia explores not only autobiography and biography proper but also letters diaries memoirs family histories case histories and other ways in which individual lives have been recorded and structured It includes entries on genres and subgenres national and regional traditions from around the world and important auto biographical writers as well as articles on related areas such as oral history anthropology testimonies and the representation of life stories in non verbal art forms
