Caskey, Nancy Flowers, 2016-08-01 The second edition of The Encyclopedia of Middle Grades Education has been revised updated and expanded since its original publication in 2005 The Encyclopedia is a comprehensive overview of the field it contains alphabetically organized entries that address important concepts ideas terms people organizations publications and research studies specifically related to middle grades education This edition contains over 210 entries from nearly 160 expert contributors this is a 25% increase in the number of entries over the first edition The Encyclopedia is aimed at a general audience including undergraduate students in middle level teacher preparation programs graduate students higher education faculty and practitioners and administrators The comprehensive list of entries are comprised of both short entries 500 words and longer entries 2000 words A significant number of entries appearing in the first edition have been revised and updated Citations and references are provided for each entry Creating the High Schools of Our Choice Tim Westerberg, 2013-09-13 This book provides strategies tools and examples to help high school principals achieve the goals put forward in the No Child Left Behind legislation With its clear examples of best practices in leadership personalization and strategic use of data it will show you how to achieve your school's academic mission

Personalizing the High School Experience for Each Student Joseph DiMartino, John H. Clarke, 2008-04-15 Explore six promising practices that high schools are using to personalize education guided personalized learning personal learning plans personalized teaching community based learning and personalized assessment

The Evolution of Teaching Rich Waters, 2014-10-08 The Evolution of Teaching invites teachers to rethink what teachers and schools do The need to rethink the role of teachers is driven by an abundance of data showing that teachers are increasingly unhappy with their work Most critically they feel a loss of control over their work and their profession as they witness teacher voices being marginalized by impersonal authorities outside of schools who dictate more and more of what teachers and schools must do The antidote to this condition is the evolution of teaching Teachers need to take charge and lead change They need to redefine teaching and schooling in such a way that it authentically supports student learning and teacher learning They must redefine it in a way that supports every teacher's desire to have a personal impact on students while having control over their own work stakeholder standing as respected professionals and a full career of professional growth As A Guidebook to the Advancement of Teaching Teacher Education and Happier Careers this text will assist teachers in reconceiving the profession of teaching in ways that will make it more personally satisfying while acknowledging that the work of teachers in the twenty first century must necessarily be different from what we have now legacy practices of standardization left over from the industrial age

Using Data to Improve Student Learning in High Schools Victoria Bernhardt, 2013-10-11 This book helps you make sense of the data your school collects including state student achievement results as well as other qualitative and quantitative data Easy to use templates tools and examples are available on the accompanying downloadable resources High stakes accountability requires that you develop your understanding of who your students are and how to get them where you want them to be Making Change Happen Bill Lamperes, 2005 Educators will find more than sixty strategies and reflections to help guide the success of any new or experienced school leader Beginning with methods of assessing the organization's culture the book expands on ways to empower staff students and community members to embrace change It is filled with creative approaches that make more out of less work with individuals from an asset model and assess results This book examines the process used by one Colorado school to achieve two five year visions and to change its image in the community Once staff students parents and community stakeholders catch the vision programs people and resources are aligned to promote success As a result the school once slated for the financial chopping block effectively moved from potential closure to national recognition as an exemplary program Like its unique programs most of the visions strategies can be replicated and adapted to any organizational setting For aspiring or veteran principals or school leaders

The Principal's Companion Pam Robbins, Harvey B. Alvy, 2014-02-18 The classic personal guide for principals updated to address today's challenges As the leader and decision maker in your school you know that the buck stops with you But when you're faced with issues that are unfamiliar or simply overwhelming where can you turn for advice and experience For over a decade the answer has been The Principal's Companion Pam Robbins and Harvey B Alvy's comprehensive classic remains a standard reference for principals of all experience levels providing a wealth of ideas techniques and reflective opportunities In the
