Abundant Culture Meaning And Significance In Everyday Australia:

The Abundant Culture Joy W. Hooton, 1995 This text features essays by Australian cultural commentators on the pursuits and concerns that give meaning and significance to everyday life This re assessment of Australian cultural life ranges from heritage gender and fashion to the beach new films and the Sylvania Waters phenomenon Culture in Australia Tony Bennett, David Carter, 2001-09-03 A 2001 survey of the changing policies and priorities that are evident in a range of contemporary cultural institutions in Australia Athletes, Sexual Assault, and Trials by Media Deb Waterhouse-Watson, 2013-02-11 Since footballer sexual assault became top news in 2004 six years after the first case was reported much has been written in the news media about individual cases footballers and women who have sex with them Deb Waterhouse Watson reveals how media representations of recent sexual assault cases involving Australian footballers amount to trials by media trials that result in acquittal The stories told about footballers and women in the news media evoke stereotypes such as the gold digger woman scorned and the predatory woman which cast doubt on the alleged victims claims and suggest that they are lying Waterhouse Watson calls this a narrative immunity for footballers against allegations of sexual assault This book details how popular conceptions of masculinity and femininity inform the way footballers bodies team bonding women sex and alcohol are portrayed in the media and connects stories relating to the cases with sports reporting generally Uncovering similar patterns of narrative grammar and discourse across these distinct yet related fields Waterhouse Watson shows how these discourses are naturalised with reports on the cases intertwining with broader discourses of football reporting to provide immunity Despite the prevalence of stories that discredit the alleged victims Waterhouse Watson also examines attempts to counter these pervasive rape myths articulating successful strategies and elucidating the limitations built into journalistic practices and language itself Sustaining Heritage Tony Gilmour, 2007-10-12 How much of our built environment should be preserved for future generations Using examples from Australia and the United Kingdom this book debates the commercialisation of heritage and argues that market forces offer more opportunities than threats Shaping Nations Linda Cardinal, David John Headon, 2002 As questions concerning nationhood and national identity continue to preoccupy both Canada and Australia Shaping Nations brings together the work of Australian and Canadian scholars around five core themes constitutionalism colonialism republicanism national identity and governance Published in English Donald Horne Donald Horne, 2017-07-03 One of Australia s leading thinkers for close to fifty years Donald Horne was probably the best Australian non fiction writer of his generation This definitive collection of Horne s writing thoughtfully selected by his son Nick tells the story of his life and intellectual development From a position of doubting whether change was possible he eventually became a proponent of the sensible reform necessary for Australia to prosper in a changing world Horne made the case for a more open modern intelligent Australia most famously in his seminal book The Lucky Country Selections from this work sit alongside pithy reflections on Australian history and culture as well as vivid autobiographical writing With an introduction by Nick Horne and a biographical essay by Glyn Davis this important book honours and illuminates the man who helped the nation understand itself He was a great clarifier of many of the problems and dilemmas of society Frank Moorhouse An independent vigorous critic Malcolm Fraser Donald Horne AO was a leading public intellectual for nearly fifty years He was the author of The Lucky Country and The Education of Young Donald and many other books and essays He edited The Bulletin chaired the Australia Council and in a late career change broadened the idea of what it means to be an academic He died in 2005 Aboriginal Art and Australian Society Laura Fisher, 2016-05-30 This book is an investigation of the way the Aboriginal art phenomenon has been entangled with Australian society's negotiation of Indigenous people's status within the nation Through critical reflection on Aboriginal art's idiosyncrasies as a fine arts movement its vexed relationship with money and its mediation of the politics of identity and recognition this study illuminates the mutability of Aboriginal art's meanings in different settings It reveals that this mutability is a consequence of the fact that a range of governmental activist and civil society projects have appropriated the art's vitality and metonymic power in national public culture and that Aboriginal art is as much a phenomenon of visual and commercial culture as it is an art movement Throughout these examinations Fisher traces the utopian and dystopian currents of thought that have crystallised around the Aboriginal art movement and which manifest the ethical conundrums that underpin the settler state condition The Imaginary Australian Miriam Dixson, 1999 Examination of the nature of Australian national identity includes reference to Aborigines discussed in terms of violence racism guilt remorse and memory questions the characterisation of race relations through forgetting and silence Stanner and violence Rowley argues that simplified historical narratives about race relations impede reparative energy in race relations psychological understanding of racism theories of the nation crisis of history and time in Australia and its impact on identity Facing Patriarchy Professor Bob Pease, 2019-10-15 Facing Patriarchy challenges current thinking about men's violence against women Drawing upon radical and intersectional feminist theory and critical masculinity studies the book locates men's violence within the structures and processes of patriarchy Addressing the limitations of current violence prevention policies Bob Pease argues that a nuanced conceptualisation of patriarchy that accounts for a variety of patriarchal structures intersections with other forms of inequality patriarchal ideologies men's peer group relations men's sexist practices and the construction of patriarchal subjectivities is required to understand the links between gender and men's violence against women Pease shows that men's violence against women needs to be understood in the context of other forms of men's violence including violence against boys and other men in the involvement of men in wars and conflicts between nations and men's ecologically destructive practices which constitute a form of slow violence With crucial implications for priorities in violence prevention gender equality promotion and in strategies for engaging men in this work Facing Patriarchy offers new hope for the elimination of men's violence This is an essential book for scholars practitioners activists and policy makers involved in violence prevention in national and international contexts From Revolution to Revelation Tara Brabazon, 2017-09-29

From Revolution to Revelation offers a new paradigm for Cultural Studies Tara Brabazon explores our understanding of our own past and the collective past we share with others through popular culture She investigates Generation X the post youth generation born between 1961 and 1981 and the popular cultural literacies that are the basis of this imagining community She looks at the ways in which popular culture offers a vehicle for memory providing the building blocks of identity the politics and passion of life captured in an unforgettable song an amazing nightclub or an unexpected goal in extra time For a fan the joy and exhilaration is enough but it is the task of cultural studies to understand why particular cultural forms survive the passage of time and space Brabazon argues with Lawrence Grossberg that Cultural Studies is the Generation X of the academic world She tracks its journey away from Marxism and subcultural theory and looks at its future In particular she explores the possibilities of popular memory studies in reclaiming and repairing the discipline of Cultural Studies making it as relevant and as revelatory as in its revolutionary past
