Academic Women Society For Research Into Higher Education:

Women in Higher Education Ana M. Martínez Alemán, Kristen A. Renn, 2002-12-13 The only comprehensive encyclopedia on the subject of women in higher education America's first wave of feminists Susan B Anthony Elizabeth Cady Stanton and others included expanded opportunities for higher education in their Declaration of Sentiments at the first Women's Rights Convention in Seneca Falls New York in 1848 By then the first American institutions to educate women had been founded among them Mt Holyoke Seminary in 1837 However not until after the Civil War did most universities admit women and not for egalitarian purposes War casualties had caused a drop in enrollment and the states needed teachers Women students paid tuition but as teachers were paid salaries half that of men By the late 20th century there were more female than male students of higher education but women remained underrepresented at the higher levels of educational leadership and training This volume covers everything from historical and cultural context and gender theory to women in the curriculum and as faculty and administrators

Academic Growth in Higher Education Helena Pedrosa-de-Jesus, Mike Watts, 2018-11-26 Many changes in higher education have derived from Europe wide initiatives such as the Bologna process and have given increasing attention to student centred learning and teaching approaches allied to growth in teachers scholarship and academic development Academic Growth in Higher Education Questions and Answers centers around a decade long research project which is one component of a long standing programme focused on ways to promote academic development and scholarship in higher education The purpose of the book is to highlight debates and issues important in teaching and learning at the tertiary level in universities colleges and schools exploring issues that teachers and lecturers will need to address throughout their professional lives These issues surround acts of student centred learning inquiry based learning teachers own practices in the classroom and every bit as significant the activities generated by their students in the process of learning The intention is to identify some of the debates relevant to teaching and learning to challenge some of the orthodoxies within traditional forms of teaching and learning and to suggest some solutions though current practice over a wide context of activity

Gender, Teaching and Research in Higher Education Gillian Howie, Ashley Tauchert, 2019-04-09 Gender Teaching and Research in Higher Education presents new insights and research into contemporary problems practical solutions and the complex roles of teaching and learning in the international academy Drawing together new research from contributors spanning a range of international and interdisciplinary perspectives this book discusses topics of particular importance in the UK USA Australasia and South Africa including curriculum boundary disciplines and research assessments the Higher Education institution educational practice authority and authorization teaching and counselling Discussion of quality audits curriculum modifications teaching certificates and other key topics add to this book's value in informing current debate and providing valuable research aids for education into the 21st Century

Challenges and Negotiations for Women in Higher Education Pamela Cotterill, Sue Jackson, Gayle Letherby, 2007-06-28

CONCEPTUALISING CHALLENGES AND NEGOTIATIONS FOR WOMEN IN HIGHER EDUCATION 1 2 3 Pamela Cotterill
Sue Jackson and Gayle Letherby 1 2 3 Staffordshire University Birbeck University of London University of Plymouth

INTRODUCTION Despite the historical tradition of academia as a male space Evans 1995 Abbott et al 2005 Stanley 1997

Letherby 2003 it is possible to argue that the expansion of higher education in the 1980s and 1990s benefited women more than it did men By 1995 there were two and a half times more women in the academy than in 1970 1 Abbott et al 2005 and in the decade to follow the numbers of women undergraduate students had overtaken men with a substantial minority of these being older non standard entrants Furthermore as Paula J Caplan 1997 3 argues Visions of the academic life draw us women toward it picturing an intellectual community whose members search with passion and integrity for Truth and Knowledge We imagine that in academia we shall find freedom from bias freedom from worldly struggles of power and wealth freedom to choose what to study and what to say and an environment characterized by tolerance and openness where everyone's energy is focused on the open exploration of ideas However whilst this may be the vision for some women it is important not to view this widening of female participation in higher education through rose tinted glasses

The Changing Role of Women in Higher Education Heather Eggins, 2016-10-11 This book sets out to examine the changing role of women in higher education with an emphasis on academic and leadership issues The scope of the book is international with a wide range of contributors whose expertise spans sociology social science economics politics public policy and linguistic studies all of whom have a major interest in global education The volume examines the ways in which the leadership role and academic roles of women in higher education are changing in the twenty first century offering an up to date policy discussion of this area It is in some sense a sequel to the earlier volume by the same Editor Women as Leaders and Managers in Higher Education but with very different emphases The pressures now are to respond to the demands of the technological age and to those of the global economy Today there are more highly qualified and experienced female academics and more expectation of their gaining the highest posts Challenges still remain particularly in terms of the top posts and in equal pay The discussion of global policy issues affecting the role of women in higher education is combined with country case studies several of which are comparative Together they examine and unpack the particular situations of women in a wide range of higher education systems from Brazil to the US to Europe to Africa and the Far East noting the shift towards more flexibility more personal choice and a greater acceptance by society of their abilities This volume is a useful and influential addition to published work in this area and is aimed at the intelligent general reader as well as the scholar interested in this topic

Seeking Equity for Women in Journalism and Mass Communication Education Ramona R. Rush, Carol E. Oukrop, Pamela J. Creedon, 2013-04-03 This volume concentrates on the study and efforts of women and minority men to gain respect and parity in journalism and mass communication and focuses on trends over the past three decades Contributions to the volume provide a history of the equity efforts and offer updates on equity in the academy and in the professions Theoretical and international perspectives on equity are also included as are the concerns about equity from the new generations now coming into the profession This anthology serves as a benchmark of women s current status in journalism and mass communication and provides a call to action for the future As such it is required reading for all concerned with establishing equity throughout the discipline

Generation and Gender in Academia B. Bagilhole,K. White,2013-07-26 The first cross cultural analysis of the differences in career trajectories and experiences between a senior group of women academics and a younger group who are at early and mid career stages Major themes in the autobiographical stories of these women were national context organisational context family class and location and agency Women in Higher Education, 1850-1970 E. Lisa Panayotidis,Paul

Stortz,2017-09-19 This edited collection illustrates the way in which women s experiences of academe could be both contextually diverse but historically and culturally similar It looks at both the micro individual women and universities and macro level comparative analyses among regions and countries within regional national trans national and international contexts The contributors integrally advance knowledge about the university in history by exploring the intersections of the lived experiences of women students and professors practices of co education and intellectual and academic cultures They also raise important questions about the complementary and multidirectional flow and exchange of academic knowledge and information among gender groups across programmes disciplines and universities Historical inquiry and interpretation serve as efficacious ways with which to understand contemporary events and discourses in higher education and more broadly in community and society This book will provide important historical contexts for current debates about the numerical dominance and significance of women in higher education and the tensions embedded in the gendering of specific academic programs and disciplines and university policies missions and mandates Higher Education: Handbook of Theory and Research John C. Smart,2008-03-21 The Handbook series provides a compendium of thorough and integrative literature reviews on a diverse array of topics of interest to the higher education scholarly and policy communities Each chapter provides a comprehensive review of research findings on a selected topic critiques the research literature in terms of its conceptual and methodological rigor and sets forth an agenda for future research intended to advance knowledge on the chosen topic Academic Women in the Arab Region Valentina Fedele,Loretta Dell'Aguzzo,Giuseppe Lubrano

Lavadera,2025-07-30 This book offers the first systematic study of gender equality in academia in the South Mediterranean region with a unique focus on the intersection of gender and class Drawing on rich qualitative data from in depth interviews with female academics in the region this analysis moves beyond traditional bibliometric approaches to explore the deeper structural factors behind women s underrepresentation in senior academic roles By combining survey web scraped and interview data the book examines the challenges women face throughout their careers and investigates whether female academics share the same socio economic backgrounds as women in the wider society or if they come from more privileged groups In particular this book considers whether those who succeed in academia possess higher levels of family capital This analysis sheds light on the complex dynamics shaping women s academic trajectories in the region It will be of interest to students and scholars in gender studies intersectional economics education and Middle Eastern and North African MENA studies
