Fathers and Mothers in Literature Henk Hillenaar, Walter Schönau, 1994 Many people as a child dream of having other parents a gentler mother a kinder or stronger father a more illustrious family According to our secret dreams were not most of us born sons or daughters of a king a president a champion Freud termed this the Family Romance We all carry these secret scenarios in ourselves Usually they are long forgotten but nevertheless remain alive in the stories we tell ourselves and relate to others Therefore the Family Romance is one of the keys to the understanding of literature The French literary critic Marthe Robert developed a fundamental theory of Freud In 1972 she presented in her publication Origins of the Novel a new method to analyse the novel and to understand its history Her study offers a proof of the relevance of Freud's views and it invites us to expand on its ideas and suggestions It is in this perspective that the authors of this volume write about the historical and mythical figures Mary Medea Electra Kaspar Hauser and Sir Gawain Other articles are devoted to the Family Romance in the works of the following authors Barthes Beckett Camus Drieu la Rochelle Faulkner Flaubert Goethe Claire Goll Jutta Heinrich Gombrowicz Greene Kafka L vy Modiano Petronius Sartre Vigny The 20th Century Go-N Frank N.

Magill, 2014-03-05 Each volume of the Dictionary of World Biography contains 250 entries on the lives of the individuals who shaped their times and left their mark on world history This is not a who's who Instead each entry provides an in depth essay on the life and career of the individual concerned Essays commence with a quick reference section that provides basic facts on the individual's life and achievements The extended biography places the life and works of the individual within an historical context and the summary at the end of each essay provides a synopsis of the individual's place in history All entries conclude with a fully annotated bibliography Postmodern Fiction and the Break-Up of Britain Hywel Dix, 2011-11-03 A monograph analysing the symbolic role played by contemporary fiction in the break up of political and cultural consensus in British public life Wandering through Guilt Paola Di Gennaro, 2015-06-18 The first comprehensive study on the pattern of guilt and wandering in literature this book examines the relationship between the two complex concepts as they appear in twentieth century novels positing its methodological premises on archetypal criticism and both close and distant reading but also drawing on psychology anthropology mythology and religion This research deciphers a common paradigm and literary representation whose archetype within Western literature is found in the biblical figure of Cain while presenting a critical framework valid for boundary crossing comparative approaches From Graham Greene s The Power and the Glory and Malcolm Lowry s Under the Volcano to Wolfgang Koeppen s Death in Rome and oka Sh hei s Fires on the Plain this book is not merely a thematic study but an analysis of the literary phenomena that appear in those novels where the sense of guilt is controversially subjective or so collective as to be perceived as universal as is often the case with war and postwar literature Di Gennaro goes beyond the analysis of explicit rewritings of the story of Cain in order to uncover the monomyth through its rhetorical structures and mythical methods The wasteland with no religion the lost abandoned garden the classical and religiously corrupted city and the tropical cannibalistic island at war are the respective settings of these narratives where the issue is neither homelessness nor journeying but rather the desperate and futile movement toward self consciousness or self destruction After the Second World War much was silenced rather than left unsaid This study retraces those silent cries over history through the powerful literary marks of myths
