Academic Program Reviews Institutional Approaches Expectations And Controversies:

Academic Program Reviews Clifton Conrad, Richard F. Wilson, 1985      Academic Program Reviews Clifton Conrad, 1987?      Assessment, Evaluation, and Accountability in Adult Education Lilian H. Hill, 2023-07-03 This book is intended to help practitioners in adult education become better informed about assessment evaluation and accountability as these are critical functions of administering and running adult education programs The book is for adult educators who have been asked to serve on assessment committees produce detailed reports for funders and accreditors create a culture of assessment within their program and organization and or develop reports for accountability purposes Section one presents an introductory overview of assessment and evaluation in adult education Section two gives guidance on practices for specific areas of adult education practice such as military education human resource development and continuing professional education Section three provides assessment practices for adults in higher education with chapters dedicated to distance learning health professions education and graduate education      Perspectives in Controversy Kenneth T. Broda-Bahm, 2002 Perspectives in Controversy brings together essays from the journal Contemporary Argumentation and Debate into a single volume These essays explore current controversies in the theory of competitive academic debate

Taking Ownership of Accreditation Amy Driscoll, Diane Cordero De Noriega, 2023-07-03 This book demonstrates how a participatory approach to assessment and accreditation in their new forms creates a synergy for learner centered education It is a guide to approaching the accreditation process from a campus wide perspective of ownership illustrated by rich descriptions of how faculty students and administrators at California State University Monterey Bay engaged with and successfully focused their accreditation processes on the improvement of their practices The approach that the authors describe was driven by a commitment to go beyond satisfying the accreditation expectations so as to promote ongoing and long term improvement of student learning It also reflects the shift of responsibility for assessment within institutions from a designated office to individual faculty and staff entire departments and the campus as a whole The authors document strategies that are practical ready to use or adapt that are appropriate for all campuses They also provide guidelines for the documentation process that accreditation demands They demonstrate how they reduced traditional resistance to assessment by emphasizing its use for the improvement of student learning helping faculty with their own teaching and creating frameworks for continuing improvements that are valued by faculty The authors emphasize the need for every institution to take into account its unique mission vision and core values and to recognize the importance of individual departmental cultures Although their accreditation triggered CSUMB s engagement with assessment the authors discuss other opportunities for jump starting the process      Annual Review of Nursing Education, Volume 2 Kathleen T. Heinrich, 2003 Annotation Interested in the latest trends in nursing education written by the nurse educators pioneering these innovations Then welcome to the first volume of the Annual Review of Nursing Education This Review focuses on these innovative practices of teaching It describes educational strategies you can adapt to your own settings and is written for educators in associate baccalaureate and graduate nursing programs staff development and continuing education The goal of the Review is to keep educators updated on recent innovations in nursing education across all settings

Leadership through Collaboration Ann S. Ferren, Wilbur W. Stanton, 2004-02-28 This book is organized around 11 topics including the skills and personal qualities needed to provide effective academic leadership strengthening the infrastructure for academic affairs through strategic planning facilities planning and technology integration the importance of developing new resources and linking them to academic priorities academic entrepreneurship assessing academic quality and improving programs and services continuous improvement the central importance of investing in the faculty and improving academic decisions The chief academic officer must be the voice for the campus s academic purposes and a source of energy in supporting the activities of others Collaboration with colleagues across the institution is key to Ferren and Stanton s approach Their experiences in administrative roles ranging from department chair to provost have provided them with the ability to conduct and utilize many studies including budget adequacy modeling and salary equity studies These are issues for which the authors have been responsible for implementation and decision making allowing them to understand that collaborative processes and partnerships such as chairs with deans deans with vice presidents faculty with administrators or the CAO with members of the president s cabinet are as important as informed decision making Because CAOs are less likely to read what business officers and vice presidents for administration read this book attempts to integrate differing institutional perspectives and explain processes and criteria CAOs can tailor their decisions to institution circumstances and solve problems with greater insight

Encyclopedia of Public Relations Robert L. Heath, 2004-10-12 The Encyclopedia of Public Relations explores the evolution of the Public Relations field with examples from history describing events changing practices and the key figures who developed and expanded the profession This two volume set is the first and most authoritative compilation of the subject and is a must have for any library serving patrons in business communication and journalism The encyclopedia explores key challenges facing the profession of public relations and its practitioners such as earning the trust and respect of critics and the general public These volumes go into great depth about such ethical policies and challenges The Public Relations Society of America PRSA operates under a specific code of ethics full details of which are included in an appendix

Faculty Participation in Decision Making Carol Everly Floyd, 1985 The literature concerning higher education and generic organization theory is reviewed to address various questions relating to faculty participation in institutional decision making Attention is directed to the rationale for faculty participation alternative types of participation participation in academic senates participation by functional area participation at the system and state levels participation and centralization decentralization strengthening consultative processes and increasing faculty satisfaction and participation Generic organization theory provides extensive reasons why participation in organizational decision making can improve employees satisfaction and performance Types of faculty participation in institutional decision making are separate jurisdictions shared authority and joint participation Faculty participation can involve curriculum design faculty personnel status selection and evaluation of administrators planning budgeting and planning for retrenchment or financial exigency Joint faculty and administrator efforts may focus on four important areas rebuilding collegial foundations shaping the consultative framework increasing the availability of information and facilitating group deliberations Areas for further analysis are suggested SW
