Access to Inner Worlds Colin Wilson,1995-11-01 Studies the case of an American living in Finland who experienced altered states of consciousness including automatic painting and poetry writing and suggest a practical route to enlightenment Darkening of the Light Llewellyn Vaughan-Lee,2013-11-01 OVER THE LAST decade or more we have become increasingly aware of how our materialistic energy intensive civilization has been destroying the fragile balance of the web of life that has sustained humanity and all living beings for millennia Yet while spiritual teachings tell us that the events in the outer world are a reflection of changes taking place in the inner worlds we appear to have little awareness of how this outer darkening is reflected within This book written between 2004 and the winter of 2012 tells the story of these inner changes that belong to our spiritual destiny and the fate of our planet. It is a witness to the darkening of the light of the sacred reflected in our continued ecological destruction and what this might mean to our shared destiny. With this darkening comes the danger that we may lose the opportunity for the global awakening that was possible at the beginning of the new millennium. This story of our collective destiny, however painful, needs to be heard if we are to take responsibility for the Earth and reclaim our sacred role as guardians of the planet. I bow to the courage in this book. Here Llewellyn Vaughan Lee has allowed himself to hear the cry of the Earth. He has been brave enough to face and to feel the immensity of the loss. He has dared to share that with us and to hope we can wake up to save what's left of our world and our souls. JOANNA MACY Co-author Active Hope: How to Face the Mess We're in Without Going Crazy. I was very moved by Llewellyn Vaughan Lee's reflections. MARY EVELYN TUCKER Co-director, Yale Forum on Religion and Ecology insightfully calls us to action now to avoid further devastation of our planet of the Earth, which is our home. We can no longer afford to remain in a collective trance ignoring how the Earth is responding to our behavior. Llewellyn inspires us to turn within and engage in the work needed to transform our world. This book is a gem. SANDRA INGERMAN MA author Soul Retrieval and Medicine for the Earth.

Ezekiel's Hierarchical World Stephen L. Cook, Corrine L. Patton, 2004. Can we live with the God of Ezekiel? Can we relate to a God who has established a multilayered hierarchy that separates the divine from the human who creates boundaries that segregate people from the temple, the priesthood, and the glory of the Lord? In contrast to those who suggest that Ezekiel should no longer be read as an authoritative part of the canon, the essays in this volume engage Ezekiel's hierarchical world directly, neither dismissing it out of hand nor accepting it uncritically. By wedding theological interest and reflection with serious biblical exegesis and criticism, this work helps readers to understand Ezekiel's hierarchical theology, especially the book's views on creation, priesthood, and land. It thus equips readers to form their own evaluations of the relevance of Ezekiel's theology for today. Contributors include Daniel I. Block, Keith Carley, Stephen L. Cook, Kathryn Pfisterer, Darrin M. Duguid, Friedrich Fechter, Julie Galambush, Norman Habel, Risa Levitt Kohn, Corrine L. Patton, David L. Petersen, Baruch J. Schwartz, Daniel L. Smith, Christopher and Steven Shawn Tuell. Paperback edition is available from the Society of Biblical Literature. www.sbl-site.org
