Accompanied By His Wife:

Accompanied by His Wife Mary Burchell (pseud. [i.e. Ida Cook.]), 1941 Tammarniit (Mistakes) Frank Tester, Peter Kulchyski, 2011-11-01 Recent media attention on the dire living conditions of the Innu in Davis Inlet Labrador has served as a stark reminder of the tragic outcome of Canadian government policy toward the Inuit in the eastern Arctic between 1939 and 1963 In Tammarniit Frank Tester and Peter Kulchyski focus on the roles of relief and relocation in response to welfare and other perceived problems and the federal government's overall goal of assimilating the Inuit into the dominant Canadian culture As a result the seeming benevolence of the post Second World War Canadian welfare state is seriously questioned The authors have made extensive use of archival documents many of which have not been available to researchers before among them the Alex Stevenson Collection which was stored in the Archives of the Northwest Territories and which proved to be invaluable in determining the course of events and the evolution of northern policies Tammarniit begins with an account of the debate over which branch of government should be responsible for the Inuit and whose budget should cover the costs for providing relief This debate was resolved in 1939 when the Supreme Court of Canada ruled that the federal government was responsible The following chapters cover the first wave of government expansion in the north which coincided with the evolution of the postwar liberal welfare state the policy debate that resulted in the decision to relocate Inuit from relatively southern communities on the east coast of Hudson Bay to the high Arctic and the actual movement of people and materials The second half of the book focuses on conditions following relocation A great deal of attention is paid to the Henik Lake and Garry Lake famines both of which occurred in the Keewatin district in the late 1950s and to the subsequent establishment of the community of Whale Cove The book concludes with an examination of the second wave of state expansion in the late fifties and the emergence of a new dynamic of intervention Portrait and Biographical Album of Ogle County, Illinois, 1886 Hollow Man David Mar, 2023-04-28 It seems the afterlife will not relinquish its grip on Mac Closkey even after taking from him his marriage and human love His unusual ministry calls him to investigate Victorian bodies discovered on the local mountain Once hazed by the world of spirits Mac Closkey has solved the legendary Jack the Ripper case Soon his local chapter requires his help to look for the head of the ex commissioner's wife whose disappearance is not as straightforward a murder as it first seems Its repercussions will ripple through the highest realms of British society The History and Antiquities of Boston Pishey Thompson, 1856 Celebrated Trials of All Countries, and Remarkable Cases of Criminal Jurisprudence John Jay Smith, 1835 Comprises 88 cases including Salem witches execution for forgery in 1828 and Chapman poison case in Bucks Co Pa in 1832 Includes many cases furnished by the London Annual Register The History and Antiquities of Boston Pishey Thompson, 2025-08-29 Reprint of the original first published in 1856 The Antigonos publishing house specialises in the publication of reprints of historical books We make sure that these works are made available to the public in good condition in order to preserve their cultural heritage The
