

Accounting Applications 1

Accounting Applications 1 is an honors-level course that can help you get a jump on college courses, start your own business, and teach you how to develop a personal budget. You will learn how to

- analyze, classify, and record business transactions, prepare financial statements
- maintain payroll records
- determine the proper handling of cash control procedures.

At the end of the course, you will have the opportunity to take the QuickBooks industry certification exam in order to become a QuickBooks Certified User (QBCU). QuickBooks certification validates that you have the essential knowledge for an entry-level accounting career.

Pre-Requisites: None required. If taking the course as part of the Finance Program of Study, Digital Information Technology should be taken first.

 After completion of the required course with a grade of 90% or higher, students must meet the practice requirements to be issued a voucher for the industry certification exam.*
