Awakening Of Candra:

Are You In The House Alone? Amanda Reyes, 2017-04-05 Beginning in the 1960s through its heyday in the 1970s and beyond the telefilm remains an important cultural artefact masquerading as disposable entertainment Made specifically for the small screen within the tight constraints of broadcasting standards what these humble movies lacked in budget and star appeal they made up for in other ways Often they served as an introduction to genre films particularly horror mirroring their theatrical counterparts with a focus on sinister cults women in prison haunted houses and even animals in revolt They were also a place to address serious contemporary issues drugs prostitution sexual violence and justice albeit in a cosy domestic environment Production of telefilms continues to this day but their significance within the history of mass media remains under discussed Are You in the House Alone seeks to address this imbalance in a series of reviews and essays by fans and critics alike It looks at many of the films the networks and names behind them and also specific genres everything from Stephen King adaptations to superheroes to true life dramas So kickback and crack open the TV guide once more for the event that is the Movie of the Week

Encyclopedia of Bohemian and Czech-American Biography Miloslav Rechcigl Jr., 2016-11-10 As the Czech ambassador to the United States H E Petr Gandalovic noted in his foreword to this book that Mla Rechcigl has written a monumental work representing a culmination of his life achievement as a historian of Czech America The Encyclopedia of Bohemian and Czech American Biography is a unique and unparalleled publication The enormity of this undertaking is reflected in the fact that it covers a universe starting a few decades after the discovery of the New World through the escapades and significant contributions of Bohemian Jesuits and Moravian brethren in the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries the mass migration of the Czechs after the revolutionary year of 1848 and up to the early years of the twentieth century and the influx of refugees from Nazism and communism The encyclopedia has been planned as a representative a comprehensive and authoritative reference tool encompassing over 7 500 biographies This prodigious and unparalleled encyclopedic vade mecum reflecting enduring contributions of notable Americans with Czech roots is not only an invaluable tool for all researchers and students of Czech American history but is also a carte blanche for the Czech Republic which considers Czech Americans as their own and as a part of its magnificent cultural history

Notable American Women with Czechoslovak Roots Miloslav Rechcigl Jr., 2019-09-16 Even though there exist only a few general studies on the subject of Czechoslovak American women this is not at all a reflection of the paucity of work done by these women as this publication demonstrates This monograph is a compendium of notable American women with Czechoslovak roots who distinguished themselves in a particular field or area from the time they first immigrated to America to date Included are not only individuals born on the territory of former Czechoslovakia but also their descendants This project has been approached strictly geographically irrespective of the language or ethnicity Because of the lack of bibliographical information most of the monograph comprises biobibliographical information in which area a plethora of information exists

As the reader will discover these women have been involved practically in every field of human endeavor in numbers that surprise. On the whole they have been noted for their independent spirit and nonconforming role. Television Game Show Hosts David Baber, 2015-06-14 This unique work profiles the private lives and careers of 32 American game show hosts including the originals e.g. Bill Cullen Peter Marshall the classics e.g. Bob Barker and the contemporaries e.g. Regis Philbin. Organized by host each chapter includes birth and family information and a complete career history. The most significant developments of each host's early life and career are highlighted complete with successes failures and scandals. Many of the biographies are accompanied by interviews with the host or his family and friends. Richard Jaeckel, Hollywood's Man of Character Gene Freese, 2016-04-20 Character actor Richard Jaeckel worked five decades in Hollywood alongside the industry's biggest names. Noted for tough guy portrayals he appeared in such classic westerns and war films as Sands of Iwo Jima 1949 The Gunfighter 1950 3 10 to Yuma 1957 and The Dirty Dozen 1967. Bringing strength and integrity to his roles he was nominated for a Best Supporting Actor Oscar for Sometimes a Great Notion 1970. A World War II veteran and Merchant Marine he was respected in the surfing and fitness communities for his ageless athleticism. His performance as Turk in Come Back Little Sheba 1952 was groundbreaking for iron pumping actors wanting to be taken seriously for their dramatic abilities. This revealing portrait of the life of a working character actor covers Jaeckel's noteworthy career through each of his film and television appearances from Guadalcanal Diary 1943 to Baywatch 1994. Recollections and behind the scenes stories from those he knew and worked with offer an in depth look at the dedication and professionalism it takes to make it in Hollywood.
