Specific considerations for conducting sports tournaments are discussed using a checklist format. Each chapter highlights a different sports meet, discussing it in terms of personnel, equipment, supplies and facility requirements. The procedural details of conducting the meet are also presented. Step-by-step information is provided on every taking, the scheduling of competition, the duties and exact movements of the officials, the recording of results and the determination of place finishes. Two new chapters have been added while the original eleven have been extensively revised and updated. Illustrations have been electronically revised and have nearly doubled in number. This new edition will serve as an invaluable guide for intramural directors, community recreation directors, YMCA/YWCA personnel and youth sports leaders.
