Adult Esl Politics Pedagogy And Participation In Classroom And Community Programs:

Adult Esl Trudy Smoke,2013-05-13 The essays in this book focus on political strategies pedagogical models and community programs that enable adult ESL learners to become vital members of North American society This is particularly important in our present time of contraction and downsizing in the education of non native speakers The authors represent a broad range of programs and perspectives but they all have in common the goal of enabling both faculty and students to become full participants in our society and thereby to gain control over their futures Readers of this book will develop an understanding of the ways in which innovative educators are creating strategies for maintaining language programs and services The Handbook of the Evolving Research of Transformative Learning Kathleen P. King,2009-05-01

Associate Editor Seamus King This handbook is a much expanded version of the original Learning Activities Survey published by Dr Kathleen P King of Fordham University in 1998 Based on her ground breaking research in this field where she used a mixed methodology research approach to study transformative learning the book will provide a model of research firsthand perspective of how research design develops reprints of articles based on the related research and specific assistance in conducting further research in this area Over 50 studies around the world have been conducted base on King s original research and her work has extended across more than 12 studies since the original publication Moreover this volume is a vital research companion book to King s popular book Bringing Transformative Learning to Life Krieger 2005 Based on our history with the prior edition it is sold out this book will have wide appeal among adult education human resource development psychology and counseling researchers students professors and practitioners and it serve as an excellent textbook or personal introduction studies of foundations of adult learning applied research or transformative learning Professors and students of adult learning counseling human resource development staff development educational administration and leadership psychology and other social sciences use this as a guide for research studies especially in the area of adult learning and or transformative learning Readers will find that this handbook provides an overview of King s transformative learning research dating back to 1997 a manual for use of the research tools a research methodology and an approach to open new vistas of research The first manual published in 1998 is now out of print and this 10th anniversary edition not only fills the gap but also continues where it stopped This handbook delineates the original model and the expanding and evolving research which has developed from 1997 to 2008 More than a manual instead this book uses a variety of formats to accomplish this goal reflection formal discussion instructions technical information personal and learner stories selected research articles and several modified forms of the original Learning Activities Survey LAS instrument

The Socially Responsible Feminist EFL Classroom Reiko Yoshihara,2017-05-11 This book explores the realities of feminist EFL teachers lives through interviews and classroom observations with eight EFL teachers at Japanese universities The data contained in the book broaden our understanding of feminist teaching in the language classroom while also providing suggestions for practice The book examines not only how the teachers feminist identities influence their pedagogical beliefs and practices but also how the teachers actually practice feminist teaching in their classrooms The tensions dilemmas and pleasures of feminist teaching converge in this book which attempts to shed light on a question that is often asked in either ESL or EFL teaching contexts is teaching about gender related topics including controversial sociopolitical topics in the language classroom education or indoctrination English as an Additional Language Constant Leung,Angela

Creese,2010-02-17 Do you have EAL students in your class Would you like guidance on teaching your subject to EAL students With linguistic diversity on the increase teachers from all subject areas and levels of school education are working with students for whom English is an additional language helping them to develop their English for learning purposes This book provides an invaluable and accessible resource for working with EAL students It brings together the international experiences and expertise of a team of distinguished language educators who explore a range of teaching approaches and provide professionally grounded practical advice The chapters cover themes references and pedagogic concerns common to teachers across the globe This book will be of use to individual teachers who want to extend their knowledge and practice and also as a set text for professional development programmes Professor Constant Leung is Deputy Head of Department of Education and Professional Studies at King s College London Angela Creese is Professor of Educational Linguistics in the School of Education at the University of Birmingham On Second Language Writing Tony Silva,Paul Kei

Matsuda,2012-12-06 On Second Language Writing brings together internationally recognized scholars in a collection of original articles that collectively delineate and explore central issues with regard to theory research instruction assessment politics articulation with other disciplines and standards In recent years there has been a dramatic growth of interest in second language writing and writing instruction in many parts of the world Although an increasing number of researchers and teachers in both second language studies and composition studies have come to identify themselves as specialists in second language writing research and teaching practices have been dispersed into several different disciplinary and institutional contexts because of the interdisciplinary nature of the field This volume is the first to bring together prominent second language writing specialists to systematically address basic issues in the field and to consider the state of the art at the end of the century and the millennium A Synthesis of Research on Second Language Writing in English Ilona

Leki,Alister Cumming,Tony Silva,2010-04-15 I applaud the authors for this sizeable undertaking as well as the care exercised in selecting and sequencing topics and subtopics A major strength and salient feature of this volume is its range It will serve as a key reference tool for researchers working in L2 composition and in allied fields John Hedgcock Monterey Institute for International Studies Synthesizing twenty five years of the most significant and influential findings of published research on second language writing in English this volume promotes understanding and provides access to research developments in the field Overall it distinguishes the major contexts of English L2 learning in North America synthesizes the research themes issues and findings that span these contexts and interprets the methodological progression and substantive findings of this body of knowledge Of particular interest is the extensive bibliography which makes this volume an essential reference tool for libraries and serious writing professionals both researchers and practitioners both L1 and L2 This book is designed to allow researchers to become familiar with the most important research on this topic to promote understanding of pedagogical needs of L2 writing students and to introduce graduate students to L2 writing research findings

Age, Accent and Experience in Second Language Acquisition Alene Moyer, 2004-03-16 This work critically addresses the age debate in second language acquisition studies presenting an in depth study of factors that predict foreign accent Quantitative and qualitative analyses confirm that cognitive social and psychological factors contribute to attainment and that biological influences must therefore be considered alongside these essential aspects of learner experience

The Sociopolitics of English Language Teaching Joan Kelly Hall, William Eggington, 2000-01-01 The sociopolitical dimensions of English language teaching are central to the English language professional These dimensions include language policies cultural expectations and the societal roles of languages This book aims to present these issues to practicing and aspiring teachers in order to raise awareness of the sociopolitical nature of English language teaching

New Approaches to the Investigation of Language Teaching and Literature Garcés-Manzanera, Aitor, Carrillo García, María Encarnación, 2023-04-11 In the last two decades the field of language and literature teaching has experienced considerable growth as a result of the wide array of new methodological avenues that have arisen from different angles This paradigm shift has paved the way for the integration of newly conceived didactic resources such as the mediation of social networks for learning language or the interdisciplinarity of culturally mediated language education It is crucial to understand this shift in order to ensure students receive the best education possible New Approaches to the Investigation of Language Teaching and Literature presents an overview of the ongoing methodological tools practices research designs and strategies used in language and literature teaching and provides education researchers and practitioners with empirically sustained evidence of teaching strategies that may be implemented in language education Covering key topics such as language skills adult learners digital literacy and learning aids this reference work is ideal for researchers scholars academicians practitioners educators and students

Identity and Language Learning Bonny Norton, 2013-10-04 Identity and Language Learning draws on a longitudinal case study of immigrant women in Canada to develop new ideas about identity investment and imagined communities in the field of language learning and teaching Bonny Norton demonstrates that a poststructuralist conception of identity as multiple a site of struggle and subject to change across time and place is highly productive for understanding language learning Her sociological construct of investment is an important complement to psychological theories of motivation The implications for language teaching and teacher education are profound Now including a new comprehensive Introduction as well as an Afterword by Claire Kramsch this second edition addresses the following central questions Under what conditions do

language learners speak listen read and write How are relations of power implicated in the negotiation of identity How can teachers address the investments and imagined identities of learners The book integrates research theory and classroom practice and is essential reading for students teachers and researchers in the fields of language learning and teaching TESOL applied linguistics and literacy This book is open access under a CC BY ND licence
