Analysis Deb Morrison, Subini Ancy Annamma, Darrell D. Jackson, 2023-07-03 How does space illuminate educational inequity Where and how can spatial analysis be used to disrupt educational inequity Which tools are most appropriate for the spatial analysis of educational equity This book addresses these questions and explores the use of critical spatial analysis to uncover the dimensions of entrenched and systemic racial inequities in educational settings and identify ways to redress them The contributors to this book some of whom are pioneering scholars of critical race spatial analysis theory and methodology demonstrate the application of the theory and tools applied to specific locales and in doing so illustrate how this spatial and temporal lens enriches traditional approaches to research The opening macro theoretical chapter lays the foundation for the book rooting spatial analyses in critical commitments to studying injustice Among the innovative methodological chapters included in this book is the re conceptualization of mapping and space beyond the simple exploration of external spaces to considering internal geographies highlighting how the privileged may differ in socio spatial thinking from oppressed communities and what may be learned from both perspectives data representations that allow the construction of varied narratives based on differences in positionality and historicity of perspectives the application of redlining to the analysis of classroom interactions the use of historical archives to uncover the process of marginalization and the application of techniques such as the fotonovela and GIS to identify how spaces are defined and can be reimaged The book demonstrates the analytical and communicative power of mapping and its potential for identifying and dismantling racial injustice in education The editors conclude by drawing connections across sections and elucidating the tensions and possibilities for future research Contributors Benjamin Blaisdell Graham S Garlick Leigh Anna Hidalgo Mark C Hogrebe Joshua Radinsky Daniel G Sol rzano William F Tate Ver nica N V lez Federico R Waitoller FAMCON '95 Linda Fisher, 1995 Roger L'Estrange and the Making of Restoration Culture Beth Lynch, 2017-03-02 Roger L Estrange 1616 1704 was one of the most remarkable significant and colourful figures in seventeenth century England Whilst there has been regular if often cursory scholarly interest in his activities as Licensor and Stuart apologist this is the first sustained book length study of the man for almost a century L Estrange s engagement on the Royalist side during the Civil war and his energetic pamphleteering for the return of the King in the months preceding the Restoration earned him a reputation as one of the most radical royalist apologists As Licensor for the Press under Charles II he was charged with preventing the printing and publication of dissenting writings his additional role as Surveyor of the Press authorised him to search the premises of printers and booksellers on the mere suspicion of such activity He was also a tireless pamphleteer journalist and controversialist in the conformist cause all of which made him the b te noire of Whigs and non conformists This collection of essays by leading scholars of the period highlights the instrumental role L Estrange played in the shaping of the political literary and print cultures of the Restoration period Taking an interdisciplinary approach the volume covers all the major aspects of his career as well as situating them in their broader historical and literary context By examining his career in this way the book offers insights that will prove of worth to political social religious and cultural historians as well as those interested in seventeenth century literary and book history Inexcusable Absence Maureen A. Lewis, Marlaine E. Lockheed, 2006 Girls education indisputably crucial to development has received a lot of attention but surprisingly little hardheaded analysis to inform practical policy solutions In Inexcusable Absence Maureen Lewis and Marlaine Lockheed propose new strategies for reaching the 70 percent of out of school girls who are doubly disadvantaged by their ethnicity language or other factors The book will be an important tool for policymakers informing interventions that can make a profound impact on the lives of the 60 million out of school girls
