Africa Dances Geoffrey Gorer, 1981

Africa in Europe Professor Eve Rosenhaft, Robbie Aitken, 2013-01-16 This volume explores the lives and activities of people of African descent in Europe between the 1880s and the beginning of the twenty first century It goes beyond the still dominant Anglo American or transatlantic focus of diaspora studies to examine the experiences of black and white Africans Afro Caribbeans and African Americans who settled or travelled in Germany France Portugal Italy and the Soviet Union as well as in Britain At the same time while studies of Africans in Europe have tended to focus on the relationship between colonial or former colonial subjects and their respective metropolitan nation states the essays in this volume widen the lens to consider the skills practices and negotiations called for by other kinds of border crossing The subjects of these essays include people moving between European states and state jurisdictions or from the former colony of one state to another place in Europe African born colonial settlers returning to the metropolis migrants conversing across ethnic and cultural boundaries among Africans and visitors for whom the face to face encounter with European society involves working across the colour line and testing the limits of solidarity Case studies of family life community building and politics and cultural production drawing on original research illuminate the transformative impact of those journeys and encounters and the forms of transnational practice that they have generated The contributors include specialist scholars in social history art history anthropology cultural studies and literature as well as a novelist and a filmmaker who reflect on their own experiences of these complex histories and the challenges of narrating them
