Africa At The Crossroads Philosophical Approach To Education:

Africa at the Crossroads Festus Chukwudi Okafor, 1974 Aspects de la culture africaine avant l'arrivée des occidentaux L'intégration de la culture occidentale éducation et renaissance de l'Afrique éducation et nationalisme africain Le problème de l'apartheid Igwebuike Philosophy and Complementary Relations Ikechukwu Anthony KANU, 2022-07-18 In this work Igwebuike is employed as a unifying concept of African thought especially that aspect concerning the human person's conception of the spiritual and material universe in which he or she lives It is an explanatory theory or principle that interprets the puzzle of our complex relationship with the non corporal world and human social life that is major social institutions that ensure social continuity and group identity and further underpins the epistemological manifestations of the human person's universe Socio-Cultural and Religious Conflicts and the Future of Nigeria Lotanna Olisaemeka, 2022 With the prevailing violent conflict situation of our world perpetuated sometimes even in the name of religion humanity today faces extinction To reverse this ugly trend humanity has no choice than to build a society where every tribe and tongue can coexist in peace This work analyzed the violent conflicts from anthropological behavioral politico philosophical and theological perspectives and makes a demand on humanity to save herself through proper education and dialogue with all men and religions Beyond Intolerance Stella Adamma Nneji, 2018-04-20 There is no gainsaying the fact that the problem of religious intolerance has become a worldwide problem In today's pluralistic society the dialogical tension between openness and identity has become a major challenge for interreligious dialogue and peaceful co-existence This tension is expressed in the question Can one maintain one's own religious identity without one closing oneself off from the other This question is central to the challenges posed on how religious education can contribute to sustainable peace in Nigeria and the world over In this book Stella Nneji critically assesses the various models of religious pedagogy mono religious multi religious and inter religious by asking how these models relate to the dialogical tension between openness and identity in Nigeria a nation perceivably confronted with an enduring history of post colonial strife religious intolerance and violence The contention is that the mono religious and multi religious models which while dominant in current practice and in academia nevertheless fall short of expressing the authentic challenges and opportunities religious intolerance presents in Nigerian multi religious cultural context In this connection this book provides a clear notion of the theological foundation principles and framework of inter religious education and a practical guide for authentic dialogue in a plural context She calls for a paradigm shift for confessional religious pedagogy to a model of inter religious learning as incorporated within the hermeneutical communicative education On this basis the book proposes a new model for the role of religious education in Nigeria This model in a critical enculturated way attempts to recognize the tensions of authentic religious difference presupposing a broad spectrum of difference in the classroom in a way that also incorporates genuine religious encounters and expressions of identity Inculturation as Dialogue Chibueze C. Udeani, 2007-01-01 Although Africa is today often seen because of its large number of Christians as the future hope of the Church a closer examination of African Christianity however shows that the Christian faith has not taken deep root in Africa Many Africans today declare themselves to be Christians but still remain followers of their traditional African religions especially in matters concerning the inner dimensions of their lives It is evident that in strictly personal matters relating to such issues as passage rites and crises most Africans turn to their African traditional religions As an incarnational faith part of the history of Christianity has been its encounter with other cultures and its becoming deeply rooted in some of these cultures The central question remains Why has the Christian faith not taken deep root in Africa This volume is concerned with answering this question Philosophy of Education and Third World Perspective Festus Chukwudi Okafor, 1981

Democratization of Nigeria's System of Higher Education Through Policy Innovations in Response to the Changing Demands of Society Emanuel Adewale Bamisaiye, 1981

Stories of Therapy, Stories of Faith Lex McMillan, Sarah Penwarden, Siobhan Hunt, 2017-03-28

Stories of Therapy Stories of Faith is a collection of stories from therapists who have amplified the theology already present in their work In particular these authors a group of counseling practitioners and educators bring forward a dialogue between their practices and a social Trinitarian theology that emphasizes the relational nature of God and humans The resulting stories of practice give voice to the ethical hope that counseling practice is participation in the redemptive story of the Gospel The authors write about their motivations for practice in initiatives as diverse as parenting trauma work opposing bullying in schools reengaging orphaned African children with their heritage providing hospitality for difference and counselor education Stories of Therapy Stories of Faith will be of interest to counselors and counselor educators particularly those drawn to developing their ethical and theological commitments within their therapeutic practices

The Role of Theology in the New South Africa Fabian N. Dapila, 1998

The Relationship Hermeneutics in the Context of Pastoral and Catechesis - Locus for Dialogue with Culture in the Missio Ecclesiae Kingsley Anagolu , 2019

The authority oriented pastoral catechetical planning method which characterizes the African mission transmission has been problematic as it subtly neglects in its pedagogy the culture and daily life of the subject Hence the people operate a Christian cultural double standard This book proffers an alternative as the author makes the concept of the relationship hermeneutics model to a creative writing that aims towards an empirical application in the theology of inculturation which is a subject oriented and dialogical method that draws its strength from the incarnation prototype
