Africa: from Independence to Tomorrow David Hapgood, 1967 Paperback Books on Africa Susan Dunlay, African Studies Association. Research Liaison Committee, 1974 Paperback Books on Africa Patricia Jones, 1977 Comparing Cultures and Religions in a Postmodern World Basile Sede Noujio, 2021-03-22 Culture and religion are basic to every human society and the history of a people always sustains her cultural and religious values We decided to use the African culture and religion as our departing point for the mere fact that Africa is generally considered as the cradle of civilization and it is a very historic and controversial continent However while examining some prominent world cultures and religions in a comparative manner our major focus is on the Christian Thomistic culture religion as illustrated by Jacques Maritain in comparison with the African culture religion as expressed by Joseph Ki Zerbo Both thinkers consider that in the midst of multiculturalism and globalization authentic humanism or personalism that is based on the sacredness of the human person should be endorsed as a new civilization or culture Only such a culture can make the future of humankind essentially meaningful and interesting Shifting from all mediocre standards of culture which are based on relativism supported by postmodern thinkers there is a need to get back to the original culture that is based on authentic and objective standards The major difference that we noticed between the Thomistic Christian ideas and those of the Africans is that while Jacques Maritain appeals for Thomistic humanism to grow from the formal classrooms and the books into the streets and the fields Ki Zerbo explains that African humanism has always existed in the streets and in the fields it might never even have existed in the books and in the classrooms The global reaction toward the killing of George Floyd in USA defying all fears of the COVID 19 intensifies the argument that a culture which qualifies one race as being superior over another has to be reexamined and radically eradicated and replaced by authentic humanism American Book Publishing Record Cumulative, 1950-1977 R.R. Bowker Company. Department of Bibliography, 1978 The Struggle for Social Change in Southern Africa Dickson A. Mungazi, 1989 This book shows the applicability of Thomas Kuhn's theory of the structure of scientific revolutions to the struggle for social change in southern Africa The components of this theory which seem applicable to the conflict and the struggle for fundamental social change in this troubled region of Africa are definition of paradigms their functions the elements of paradigm shifts and their effect the relationship between paradigm shift in natural and social science and the concept of anomaly This study utilizes the components of this theory to discuss why the problems of southern Africa seem to defy this solution United States and Canadian Publications on Africa, 1967 Africa: from independence to tomorrow; with a new preface by the author David Hapgood, 1970 Books for the Teen Age New York Public Library, 1968
