African American Livesvoli:

Black Profiles in Courage Kareem Abdul-Jabbar, 2000-06 Recounts inspirational stories of influential African Americans including Crispus Attucks Frederick Douglass and Rosa Parks

Faith and Struggle in the Lives of Four African Americans Randal Maurice Jelks, 2019-01-10 In 1964 Muhammad Ali said of his decision to join the Nation of Islam I know where I m going and I know the truth and I don t have to be what you want me to be I m free to be what I want to be This sentiment the brash assertion of individual freedom informs and empowers each of the four personalities profiled in this book Randal Maurice Jelks shows that to understand the Black American experience beyond the larger narratives of enslavement emancipation and Black Lives Matter we need to hear the individual stories Drawing on his own experiences growing up as a religious African American he shows that the inner history of Black Americans in the 20th century is a story worthy of telling This book explores the faith stories of four African Americans Ethel Waters Mary Lou Williams Eldridge Cleaver and Muhammad Ali It examines their autobiographical writings interviews speeches letters and memorable performances to understand how each of these figures used religious faith publicly to reconcile deep personal struggles voice their concerns for human dignity and reinvent their public image For them liberation was not simply defined by material or legal wellbeing but by a spiritual search for community and personal wholeness

African-American Stories of Triumph Over Adversity Geraldine Coleman, 1996-10-21 African American Stories of Triumph Over Adversity is about ordinary people born into poverty violence and abuse who have forged a path through the dense forest of life Along the way they learned to build upon their experiences to create a better way of life for themselves Their voices are at once personal and political for they speak about the impact of the experience of family school and community on their emerging self as well as the psycho social turmoil created living in a society where the color of one s skin defines one s place in the social order These are stories of triumph of the human spirit They are stories of faith hope love strong will and determination As one storyteller found if a person can take the worst thing that could happen to them in life and see that as an event and not their entire life success will always be on the horizon

Seeking Personal Validation Anece F. McCloud, 2019-04-10 This book is a memoir written by an African American woman who grew up in the rural South during the late 1930s and 1940s Being poor and having to confront three types of prejudices racial color within the Negro race some perpetrated by her own relatives and poverty affected her self esteem and feelings of self worth She dreamed of being a different person and in at least one instance while in grade school she tried to change her personal appearance in a nonsensical manner that could have been dangerous In her early twenties just as her self concept was improving an uncontrollable illness made her feel that she was living between heaven and hell She includes bits of history sociology and psychology in telling about her life In the later part of the memoir she describes the effect that being involved in a newly developing role in academia had upon her life and others Through her writings the reader becomes more knowledgeable about life as a black person and can learn some unknown facts about race relations working in positions that are not well known by the general public experiences with sexism and combating everyday human problems Virtues and Values Peter J. Paris,2009-12-01 Peter Paris s popular and influential work on African and African American spirituality is here brought to a broader audience Paris in his influential book The Spirituality of African Peoples showed how the religious and moral values of Africa have pervaded African American life and thought In this excerpt discussing six particular virtues he shows how the African worldview enriched and ennobled African American notions of morality and values of public virtue and of meaningful life The African American Book of Values Steven Barboza,1998 An impressive volume of poems stories letters songs folktales and short biographies this book guides African Americans and others solidly and securely through life s moral and ethical dilemmas Full color Standing the Test of Time Julie Rainbow,2012-05-01 Standing the Test of Time celebrates African Americans marriages of more than 30 years while providing a rare opportunity to glimpse in to the lives of relationships that work The stories are riveting inspiring and filled with warmth and wisdom They are love stories with a purpose Deep and meaningful marriages are one the most rewarding experiences life may offer Unfortunately most of us have little knowledge of the tools needed to make relationships work We re usually guided by our parents relationships girlfriends homeboys or previous experiences which may lead to more failure than success We spend a life time reacting responding and rebounding from mistakes and misguided intentions that have caused us pain and frustration The twenty phenomenal couples featured in Standing the Test of Time share honest and intimate insight into their relationships to reveals valuable life lessons in love forgiveness communication building a family and growing together Wisdom gleaned from these African American elders is both intuitive and significant A lot of people get married because they are in love The goal is not to be in love but to love Hattie Wilson Standing the Test of Time This African-American Life Hugh B. Price,2017 Memoirs of Hugh Price former president CEO of National Urban League African American Core Values Richard Rosenfield,2009-09 A Best Hits compilation of self help quotations from famous to ordinary African Americans from establishment insiders to athletes and rap artists from the revered elders to twelve year old Myesha A treasure trove of wisdom that can help all young people avoid problems in life and make the most of opportunities A realistic inspiring view of African Americans advancing an antidote to the negative media portrayals A telling of centuries of American history in the poignant voices of people who lived and shaped that history
