Every two years the fall issue of The Met's quarterly Bulletin celebrates notable recent acquisitions and gifts to the collection. Highlights of Recent Acquisitions 2022-2024 include the monumental handscroll painting Streams and Mountains without End, a masterwork by the Qing dynasty painter Wang Yuanqi; the nineteenth-century painting Bлизaire and the Frey Children, which offers a rare depiction of an identified Black teenager with the children of his enslaver; Helene Schjerfbeck's The Lace Shawl, which is a layered dramatic portrait of the artist's friend and landlady; Meanwhile, Leopoldo M. ndez's linocut depiction of the great Mexican printmaker Jos Guadalupe Posada expands the already distinguished collection of twentieth-century Mexican graphic arts in the Department of Drawings and Prints. This publication also honors the many generous contributions from donors that make possible the continued growth of The Met collection.

The Art of Curating Sally Anne Duncan, Andrew McClellan, 2018-08-07

From 1921 until 1948 Paul J. Sachs (1878-1965) offered a yearlong program in art museum training, Museum Work and Museum Problems, through Harvard University's Fine Arts Department. Known simply as the Museum Course, the program was responsible for shaping a professional field: museum curatorship and management that in turn defined the organizational structure and values of an institution through which the American public came to know art. Conceived at a time of great museum expansion and public interest in the United States, the Museum Course debated curatorial priorities and put theory into practice through the placement of graduates in museums, big and small, across the land. In this book, authors Sally Anne Duncan and Andrew McClellan examine the role that Sachs and his program played in shaping the character of art museums in the United States in the formative decades of the twentieth century. The Art of Curating is essential reading for museum studies scholars, curators, and historians.
