Pierre-André Burton, OCSO

Aelred Of Rievaulx Pursuing Perfect Happiness:

Aelred of Rievaulx John R. Sommerfeldt, 2005 For the medieval Cistercian abbot Aelred of Rievaulx human beings are capable of happiness because human nature is good but the self defeating choices of humans have led to their misery A loving God leads humans to happiness by nudging their free wills toward choosing the good and then if they respond positively giving them the power to realize that good The power or virtue which perfects the human intellect is humility which is not meekness but self knowledge gained through introspection and meditation on and through nature and Scripture The will is perfected through love without which no human act is good Love for oneself for others and for God are complementary not competing acts of the will A special way of loving is friendship on which Aelred's teaching is perhaps the most complete and most sophisticated in the history of Christian thought Perfection is for Aelred attainable in this life since he sees perfection as a process not a static condition That condition will be attained in the total fulfillment of the afterlife

A Companion to Aelred of Rievaulx (1110-1167) Marsha Dutton, 2017-01-23 Brill's Companion to Aelred of Rievaulx explores the life works and thought of Aelred Cistercian abbot of Rievaulx Abbey from 1147 to 1167 As well as introducing the three genres of his works sermons spiritual teaching and history scholars survey such central topics as Marian devotion love and friendship the sacramental nature of community lay spirituality and saints lives The work also includes the first supplement to the Bibliotheca aelrediana secunda listing publications by and about Aelred from between 1996 and 2015 Aelred is rapidly becoming one of the best known and most loved of the 12th century Cistercians this book provides welcome new insights into his contributions to the spiritual and political concerns of his place and time Contributors are Damien Boquet Pierre Andr Burton Marsha L Dutton Elizabeth Freeman Daniel M La Corte Marie Anne Mayeski Domenico Pezzini John R Sommerfeldt and Katherine Yohe Aelred of Rievaulx on Love and Order in the World and the Church John R. Sommerfeldt, 2006 The universe is a product of God's infinite love according to the expansive thinking of Aelred of Rievaulx a Cistercian abbot of the Middle Ages Aelred sees human existence order and action as reflections of God's love But Aelred knows that although they have been created for happiness humans are neither perfect nor happy At the same time however he is sure that the flood of God's love can overwhelm people who do not reject this divine gift Because Aelred knows that humans exist only in relationship he searches out the social order necessary for happiness So he explores the nature of the church as a community and the support that each social group or calling gives to the whole of existence This study examines how Aelred sees God informing the cosmos and the humans who inhabit it according to the divine order and principle of love It follows Aelred's analysis of the disordering sources of human unhappiness which happens when humans reject God's love and then investigates Aelred's understanding of God's re-ordering of the human condition through the gifts and graces flowing from his greatest gift his son Jesus BOOK JACKET Aelred of Rievaulx (1110-1167) Pierre-André Burton, OCSO, 2020-12-15 This book places the life of Aelred of Rievaulx third abbot of the English Cistercian abbey of Rievaulx within the hundred year period from the Norman Conquest of England in October 1066 through Aelred's death in January 1167. While exploring what is known of Aelred's life from his own works and especially from the principal work of Walter Daniel, author of The Life of Aelred of Rievaulx, Burton considers the influence of both English and church history on Aelred's personality and purpose as Christian abbot and writer. He emphasizes the place of the crucified Christ at the center of Aelred's life while calling spiritual friendship not only personal but cosmological, the hermeneutic key to his teaching.

Spiritual Friendship Aelred of Rievaulx, Dennis Billy, 2008-10-28. This surprisingly modern twelfth century classic has long been popular with monks. Now this new edition opens up the riches of this spiritual masterpiece to a wide audience of contemporary readers who see the spiritual life not as a solitary enterprise but one intimately connected to relationships. Written in dialogue form, Spiritual Friendship offers wise counsel on many aspects of friendship. Dennis Billy, C.Ss.R., editor of the innovative Classics with Commentary series, has once again provided readers with an invaluable introduction and background. The popular translation by M. Eugenia Laker is complemented by Billy's helpful commentary and thoughtful reflection questions.

The Double Edward Cletus Sellner, 2013. Drawing upon theology, Jungian psychology, literature, and the history of Christian spirituality, this book shows how same-sex desire can be reflected in those close intimacy between gay men.

Theologizing Friendship Nathan Sumner Leffler, 2014-09-15. In Theologizing Friendship, the author aims to revitalize Jean Leclercq's defense of monastic theology while expanding and qualifying some of the central theses expounded in Leclercq's magisterial The Love of Learning and the Desire for God. The current work contributes to a revised and updated status quaestionis concerning the theological relationship between classical monasticism and scholasticism construed in more systematic and speculative terms than those of Leclercq, rendered here through the lens of friendship as a theological topos. The work shares with Ivan Illich's In the Vineyard of the Text the conviction that the rise of the Schools of Paris, Oxford, etc., constitutes one of the greatest intellectual watersheds in the history of Western civilization, where Illich's ruminations are largely philosophical and particularly epistemological; the author's are theological and metaphysical. In his novel proposal that within the monastic and scholastic milieu there obtain parallel threefold analogies among friendship, reading, and theology, the author not only offers an original contribution to current scholarship but gestures towards avenues for institutional self-examination much needed by the contemporary modern and postmodern Academy.

Dictionary of Theologians Jonathan Hill, 2010-03-25. An exhaustive guide to every significant Christian theologian who lived from the first century to 1308, the year in which John Duns Scotus died. The dictionary encompasses the Catholic, Orthodox, Nestorian, and Monophysite traditions, including information not previously available in English. Thoroughly indexed, the dictionary incorporates common variants of names and concepts which will help and direct the reader. The main criterion for inclusion has been contribution to the development of Christian theology. Sub-criteria by which that is measured include above all originality and influence on later figures. With over 290 entries, the dictionary provides a handy summary of theologians' lives and writings together with recent scholarship as well as an up to date definitive bibliography listing primary texts translations and secondary literature in the major western European languages Useful for all levels of academia no other text matches the depth of the dictionaryis bibliographies The unprecedented thoroughness of Hill s compilation provides an essential resource for studies at all levels on such a large and varied range of Church thinkers The Cambridge Companion to the Cistercian Order Mette Birkedal Bruun,2013 Presents the Order s figureheads practical life and spiritual horizon and its contribution to medieval Europe s religious cultural and political climate Generations of Feeling Barbara H. Rosenwein,2016 An exploration of emotional life in the West considering the varieties transformations and constants of human emotions over eleven centuries
