Boyer, 2011-05 The Gov t of Afghanistan is committed to reducing poverty and increasing economic growth in the private sector Two primary constraints impede the Government's efforts 1 limited or ambiguous rights to land and 2 state ownership of under utilized or unutilized enterprises USAID Afghanistan designed the Land Titling and Economic Restructuring in Afghanistan Project The project has two components The first focuses on land titling and registration to help the Gov t of Afghanistan improve land tenure security in urban areas The second focuses on privatizing state owned enterprises This audit determines whether the project had achieved planned results and to assess what impact the project has made A print on demand report Afghanistan John C. Griffiths, 2013-04 John Griffiths delves into the history culture social fabric internal politics and economy of this intriguing and backward country He reveals a nation living in the shadow of perpetual conflict from the early incursions Persian Greek and Hun Mongol through the Russian invasion and subsequent withdrawal to the rise of the Taliban and the resulting international crisis which led to the War on Terror and the ongoing Allied occupation of the country Set against Afghanistan's deep rooted religious ethnic and social divisions and the more recent bitter civil war that left as many as 2 million Afghans dead and over 6 million homeless Griffiths examines the political situation in particular the role of the Taliban who controlled approximately 90 per cent of the country before the war under their fanatical and reclusive leader He analyses their stance on minority groups the importance of Islam the place of women in Taliban society their views on education and their support for the Islamic fundamentalist Osama bin Laden He also discusses the difficulties that the West has and will continue to face when attempting to impose law and order on a country which has as its core a collection of diverse independent and proud people and stresses the importance of ultimately creating stability in what is becoming a vitally important strategic and political flashpoint Fully updated Afghanistan Land of Conflict and Beauty provides an insightful and informative account of a country trapped between the middle ages and the twentieth first century Reform and Regulation of Economic Institutions in Afghanistan Haroun Rahimi, 2022-10-21 Taliban's return to power in August of 2021 caused everyone to ask why the two decades of institution building in Afghanistan failed This book investigates the root causes of failed reforms in an important area of reform trade and credit institutions It explains why the efforts to reform and regulate the economic institutions in Afghanistan failed and what we can learn from their failure It draws on more than eighty interviews with Afghan merchants business leaders money dealers and government officials in five major provinces of Afghanistan to identify the barriers to access to credit and to understand the performance of formal institutions banks and their informal counterparts This book finds that Afghan merchants were often unable to benefit from the offerings of formal institutions for three reasons a highly volatile business climate uncertain contract enforcement and an unsupportive property rights system Several informal institutions have emerged that alleviate some of the credit constraints on Afghan merchants These informal institutions include risk sharing trade credit operations money dealers short term working capital loans Gerawee and Sar qufli Although these informal institutions have helped Afghan merchants survive they are unable to support economic growth This book argues that countries like Afghanistan should solve their institutional dilemma by adopting an approach which the author calls Grounded Institutional Reform Using this approach a country would formalize existing informal institutions a development that would vastly increase their effectiveness While this book focuses on credit and trade in Afghanistan the analysis of formalizing the informal can easily be extended to solve other types of economic problems in similarly situated countries This book should be of great interest to scholars policymakers and development workers in the field of law finance and development

Jobs from Agriculture in Afghanistan Izabela Leao, Mansur Ahmed, Anuja Kar, 2018-03-28 The agriculture sector can play an important role in poverty reduction and sustained growth in Afghanistan primarily through job creation improved productivity and inclusiveness Using an agricultural jobs lens and multidimensional approach this report explores the sector's direct and indirect roles in explaining the dynamics of rural employment The report critically examines three dimensions First it evaluates the current jobs structure in rural areas and finds that rural jobs are concentrated in cereal agriculture especially in wheat which reflects why the returns from jobs in agriculture are low in Afghanistan Second it analyzes the inclusive nature of agriculture jobs for vulnerable groups such as women youth those who are landless and the bottom 40 percent of income earners The analysis finds that although agriculture jobs are inclusive many women and youth participate as voluntary family workers because they are unable to access markets and or find paid jobs in the nonfarm sector Third the report evaluates the role of public and private sector interventions in supporting job creation in agriculture It was argued that interventions can work and that there is significant scope to scale them up Overall the report exhibits many insights about the state of Afghanistan's rural labor market and provides guidance for formulating effective job creation policies for the rural population The key recommendations provide a pathway to achieve sustained and inclusive job growth through diversification toward high value crops and livestock linking farmers to markets through continued investment in connectivity and rural infrastructure a balanced development strategy for an enabling environment for farm and nonfarm sectors and strengthening the private sector presence in agriculture and its linkage with the public sector to agribusiness In tandem it is important to improve the design structure of jobs measurement for rural jobs especially jobs in agriculture tailored to sectoral context
